Tacoma Stadium

WESTERN WASHINGTON

This is Art Svidran, 185 pound fullback on the Viking starting eleven and formerly an outstanding high school athlete at Buckley. Art, an excellent passer in addition to being a fast and hard-running ball carrier, can be expected to carry a big share of the offensive load when the Vikings start rolling today.

Vikings To Look For

Dr. Charles Lappenbusch brings his Vikings from Bellingham to Tacoma for the second time this year this Saturday afternoon. They lost on their first trip 6-0 in a "goo-go-round" with P. L. C. Up to that time they were undefeated.

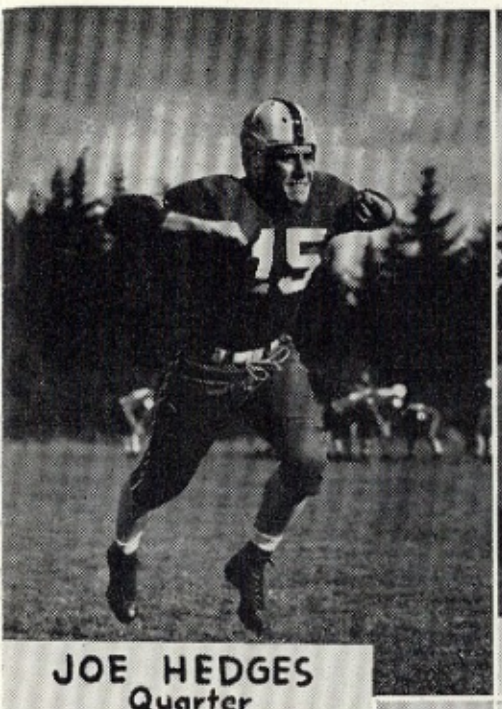

As usual "Lappy," the vitamin pill and long underwear adherent, will run his squad from the Lappenbusch "cock-eyed box." The tailback in this system lines up facing South Pasadena looking out of the corner of his eye at the center. From this unsuspecting attitude he'll handle the ball on nearly every offensive attempt.

Keep your eye on Lee Stout, the passing sensation of the Vikings. He throws them high wide and handsome to Bob Jewell and Truman Fones, a pair of sticky fingered receivers.

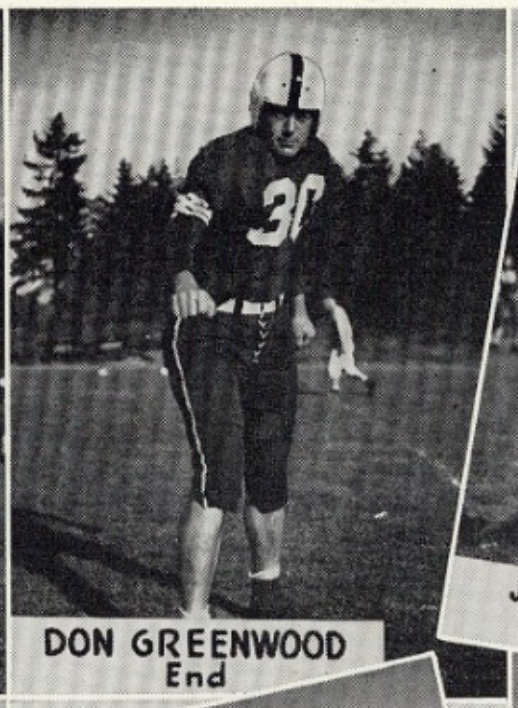

Jack McStott, former Puyallup High star, will see a lot of action in the right half position. Jack Creasy is the scat back of the squad and tabbed as the hardest boy to catch in an open field.

Men to watch in the line are George Yonlick, Moose Zurline and Wally Keehr. George Sutherland, 210-pound center from Seattle, is rated as one of the best pivot men in the WINCO League.

Scat Backs to See Action

Being plagued by left halfback trouble all season, Coach Frank Patrick has drafted a couple of his Jayvee squad to show how things should be done in the ball packing department. Keep your eyes on Dale Larson, speedster from Lincoln High, who has been running wild for the Logger Jayvees this season. Jack Fabulich, another sprinter, from Puyallup, has teamed with Larson in making the Jayvee backfield a track team. Merlin Corbin is the third Jayvee back to see action today from the tailback spot. These three added to Ray Spalding, former Stadium will-o-the-wisp, should make things rather speedy out there this afternoon.

Warren Wood, 210 pound fullback, is slated to be the work horse again. The plunging specialist will also handle all the kicking.

Last year these two teams met in the season opener at Bellingham with the Viking on top 7-6. It was a whing-ding from the word go. Long runs, blocked kicks and lots of passes featured last season's tussle. Even old "Pop" Haggerty, the famous north country referee, added to the glamour of the game by blowing his little tin flute at the oddest times.

If last year's fracas is any indication, this one today should be the best of the year. Put it down as a grudge match from start to finish.
