JOHN KULBITSKI: Head Football Coach

This is John's second year as head coach at Western Washington College. His High School coaching record in Minnesota was 65 wins - 7 losses - 2 ties, and a state championship in 1949. He also coached two years at the University of Minnesota under Wes Fesler.

During his days as a gridder, he played center for the Golden Gophers of Minnesota under Bernie Bierman in 1936-37-38, during which time they were Big Ten Conference Champions for three years and in one of these years they were National Champions. While serving in the Navy, John played tackle and guard for the Iowa Seahawks in 1942.

In addition to his gridiron chores, he is also coaching the swimming and the golf teams.

ROWLAND P. SMITH: Assistant Coach

"Red" was born in Seattle, Washington on January 1, 1924 and attended Broadway High School in Seattle. While attending Broadway High, he set a new track record in the 880 with a time of 1:59.8, and also played football for 3 years. Red went to college at Michigan State where he played 2 years of football, track, and baseball. He was then called into the Air Force and was in the South Pacific for 3 years. He graduated from the University of Washington in 1948.

He coached frosh football at Garfield, Seattle for 2 years for Swede Lindquist. Red then became head football coach at Morten for one year. For six years he coached at Shelton as head football coach and baseball coach until which time he was recalled into the Airforce because of the Korean War. Smith coached the All State West team in 1957. His coaching record for football is 60 wins - 19 losses - 2 ties. This is Reds first year as assistant coach with the Vikings.

JACK HUBBARD: Assistant Coach

Jack is a graduate of Central Washington College of Education. He was the head basketball and baseball coach at Everett High School for three years before coming to Western Washington College of Education in 1955. He was assistant football coach to Dick Renfro at Clarkston High School in 1948. While Head Basketball and baseball coach in 1949 to 51 at Mt. Baker he was assistant to Bob Tisdale in the football season.

WATKIN LORNE DAVIES: Coach of Junior Varsity, and Assistant Coach.

"Joe" was born in Vancouver B.C. August 6, 1930. Joe went to King George High School and won City High School All Star football honors in 1949. He played football at Western Washington College of Education in 1951. From 1952 to 1956 Joe coached the Vancouver Blue Bomber Football Team. While he coached there he had an amazing record of 41 wins, 1 tie, and only 5 losses.

LEO MARTY: Trainer

Leo came from Seattle where he graduated from Queen Ann High School. This is his second year as trainer for the Vikings. Leo went to the N.A.I.A. Nationals as trainer in track and field last spring. Leo is a Physical Education major and hopes to coach football and basketball in the future. He is a hard worker and does his job very well.

VIKING BRIEFS

RON BERRY.....Ron is a 235 pound tackle from Bellingham, Washington. He has had one years experience and should play a lot of ball for the Vikings this year. He played a lot of football for Bellingham High School.

ROY GREENAUGH.....Roy is a big freshman tackle from Kent, Washington where he lettered two years in high school. Roy is the heaviest man on the team weighing 290 pounds. He is rough and aggressive for his size and is expected to see a lot of action in the middle of the line for the Vikings this year.

ROD SCHOTT.....Rod is the most experienced man on the team as this is his fourth year as tackle on the Viking's squad. Rod is a big man weighing 220 pounds. Rod is from Sequim where he played a lot of ball in high school. There is no doubt that Rod will be one of the main stalwarts in the Viking's line this year.

TONEY CARL.....Toney is a 215 pound tackle from Shelton, Washington. He lettered as a freshman last year and should strengthen the Vikings line this year. Toney is 19 years old and is a sophomore.

BERT LINDMAN.....Bert is a 190 pound senior from Bellingham Washington. He is a two year veteran guard for the Vikings. Bert will be one of the main stalwarts in the Viking line this year.

EDWARD MELBORNE.....Ed is a two year veteran at the guard spot for the Vikings. Ed weighs 220 pounds and comes from Seattle where he played football at Queen Ann High School. With his size and experience Ed will be a great asset to the center of the Viking's line this year.

LYNN ROSENBACH.....Lynn is from Arlington High School where he lettered in football, basketball, and baseball. He went to Everett J. C. for two years where he also lettered in football. He plays guard for the Vikings with one years experience already at Western. He is 180 pounds and a senior.

BOB WILKENSON.....Bob is a 190 pound veteran end from Ferndale, Washington. This is Bob's fourth year with the Vikings. He is noted for his aggressiveness and for his pass catching abilities.

LARRY ODLE.....Larry is from Klickitat, Washington where he lettered in football, basketball, and baseball, in High School. He went to Gray's Harbor J.C. in 1956 and won letters in football and baseball. Larry is a senior and plays end for the Vikings. With his experience he will be a great asset to the team.

MERLIN SCHAGER.....Merlin is a freshman end from Auburn, Washington. While playing football for Auburn High School he was voted on the All Conference team and was also voted Most Inspirational Player by his team-mates. He was captain of the team as a senior.

JOHN MERRITT.....John is a freshman from Renton, Washington where he played his high school football. John was a back in high school but now he is being converted to end. John is 190 pounds and should see some action this year.

VIKING BRIEFS

JACK SIM.....Jack is a 200 pound sophomore center from Vancouver, Canada. He is an outstanding performer in the center of the line. He should see a lot of action with the Vikings this year. Jack is 24 years old with one year's experience already at Western.

SAM MARTIN.....Sam is a 170 pound halfback from Auburn, Washington. He lettered three years in football at Auburn High School and made all conference in his senior year. Sam is a sophomore at Western and is majoring in Industrial Arts with a P.E. minor. He is a letterman in football at Western. Sam is very fast and aggressive, being an all state trackman in High School.

FRED EMERSON.....Fred is a transfer from the University of Washington where he played football for two years. He is a 180 pound junior from Kent, Washington. While in High School he was voted on the all state football squad. Fred is one of the fastest men on the team and should see a lot of action for the Vikings this year. He is a very good broken field runner. Fred plays left halfback.

DICK HUSELTON.....Dick is a 180 pound sophomore quarterback from Renton, Washington who saw action with the Vikings as a freshman last year. He is expected to see much gridiron activity again this year with the Vikings.

JIM GARD.....Jim is a 160 pound senior quarterback from Enumclaw, Washington. He has had two years previous experience with the Vikings and should strengthen the Viking's passing game considerably. He has a lot of fire and hustle.

AL DECORIA.....Al is a speedy 160 pound halfback from Auburn, Washington. He spent one year each at Centralia J.C. and Whitworth. He made a football letter at both colleges. Al is a junior and will be one of the main ball carriers on the squad this year.

TOM EMERSON.....Tom is a freshman halfback from Kent, Washington. He earned all conference honors in football when he was a senior in Kent High School. Tom is quite small but he makes up for lack of size by lots of hustle.

CHARLES JORDAN.....Charles is a transfer from Olympic J. C. where he lettered two years in football as a halfback. He is from Seattle and played his high school football at Garfield under Swede Lindquist. He is a junior and weighs 165 pounds.

DENNY SHEPPARD.....Denny is a fine fullback prospect who came here from Everett Junior College. His hometown is Everett and played a lot of football for the Everett Seagulls while in High School. Denny is a sophomore and weighs 185 pounds. He will play a lot of ball for the Vikings this year.

SKIP KAYS.....Skip is a two year senior veteran from Seattle where he played high school football at Seattle Prep. He played one year at Olympic J.C. also. Skip weighs 170 pounds and plays fullback. He will strengthen the Viking backfield considerably.
