a message from Western's president . . .

Homecoming is our special way to urge Alumni to return to the Campus, to renew acquaintances with old friends and professors, and to reaffirm a devotion to education — particularly to Western Washington State College. There are rapid changes, indeed, but your college remains true to its purposes and obligations.

Alumni are always welcome, but especially so today when events have been carefully planned for you by the Associated Student Body Homecoming Committee and the Alumni Association.

Welcome to Homecoming 1961.

JAMES L. JARETT

WELCOME FROM THE DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Welcome!

Again this year the Evergreen Conference has provided us with a formidable foe.

Our program of athletics has grown with the institution. Football, basketball, baseball, track, wrestling, rugby, cross country, swimming, golf and tennis constitute our varsity program.

The enlarged program carries with it the new and the traditional. Your counsel will keep the operations traditionally educational and productive.

It is experience that helps uncommon sense to become creative. Tradition established by such men as Sam Carver, Dr. Bond and others in education and athletics has given the Vikings a sportsmanship base from which Western has gained attributes of solid educational import.

To the total squad of 1921 I wish you health, speed and distance. It must bring you happiness to realize that teamwork has not lost its value or its felt need.

Civilization must have teamwork and sportsmanship to survive.

CHARLES F. LAPPENBUSCH
Director of Athletics

VIC THE VIK SAYS:

Bob Plotts, leading Vic pass receiver for two seasons, caught his first td pass in three years last Saturday against PLU . . . Gary Fumano leads Vik tacklers with 115 in seven games — better than 16 a game . . . Watch for trickery in the Vik backfield — last week they ran two double reverses . . . Doug Ringenbach had the best day of his collegiate career against PLU as he ran for 29 yards and passed for 113 more . . . School record tied with 17 pass interceptions — need one to break it — Congratulations to the Viking pass defeders and to Back Coach Bob Jacobs who work so hard drilling the deep backs . . . Viks' first win over UPS was the first time in nine years that a Western football team had defeated a UPS team . . . Watch the freshmen — seven suited up for the PLU game last weekend . . . Farrar's Raiders, Viking JVs, defeated by Everett JC 12-7 — The Junior Viks almost turned the table on the second place team in the JC legaue this year . . . The Viks have scored 80 points this season — 25 more than all last year . . . Many say that Gary Moore, junior end, is the best defensive end in the conference this year . . . Welcome Grads — hope you enjoy the game today — YOU can help build athletics at Western — Support your team and school . . . Cover by Ron Ladines — he is also on the field today . . .

The New Gymnasium

One of the finest gymnasiums in the country, it is just now being completed. Seating capacity for basketball will be 4000. Gym will be strictly for use of men as women will be using the old building.

ing up only 117 yards a game rushing and 93 yards passing. Led by 185 pound junior guard Gary Fumano, the Viking ground defense has been impregnable at times this season. In a game with Eastern the Savages were unable to get through the front line and ended up with a minus seven yards rushing. Last week against PLU the Viking defense wall held the Lutes to only 78 yadrds rushing. Fumano has able help up front in Myles Phipps, Neil Sherbakoff, and Rich Hartley, all sophomores, Matt Kjelstad, a junior, and Larry Kosoff, the only senior in the front wall. The defensive end spots are held down by Gary Moore and Bob Plotts, both juniors. In the defensive backfield Ron Roe, Doug Ringenbach, John Skov and senior Ron Ladines hold down the opponents' passing game. Both Roe and Skov are freshmen and Ringenbach is a junior.

With only three members of this year's starting offensive eleven departing, Coach Jim Lounsberry and his assistants can look forward to brighter things next season. Dick Hayes and Harry Leons, both offensive tackles, will be gone next year as will Ron Ladines, offensive and defensive halfback. Larry Kosoff, starting defensive linebacker will be absent when the Viks report in as will reserve quarterback Vance Spangler.

THE COACH SAYS HELLO . . .

Welcome back to the old stompin' grounds, grads. We feel we are gradually making a little progress in building a representative football team. We are still a young team. There are 3 seniors, 8 juniors, 7 sophomores and 10 freshmen suited up for today's game as far as eligibility is concerned. Any success we have enjoyed this year has been due to a fine team effort on part of the squad. The players have worked hard all year striving to achieve "excellence" in fundamentals and techniques. Win, lose or draw, these boys are fine gentlemen that you can be proud to have representing Western.

Again let me repeat, we need help in locating good football players that are good citizens, good students, and are serious about getting an education. You know what Western has to offer in the way of an outstanding education — spread the word and help Viking Athletics keep step with the growth of the College.

JIM LOUNSBERRY

GREETINGS FROM THE A.S.B. PRESIDENT . . .

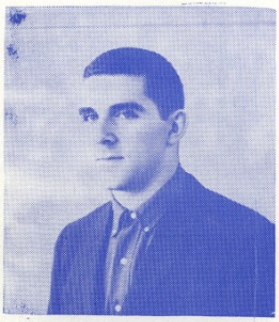

Hello Alums, welcome back!

By this time I'm sure you realize that Homecoming 1961 is one of the best ever put on for you. I hope you've had time to enjoy some of the events planned for you, as it is through pleasing you that the thrill of Homecoming is instilled in the regular students.

I know the team will put on a fine show for you. Enjoy the game and make this year's Homecoming the most memorable.

Sincerely,

RICHARD D. HAYES,

1921 Football Team Honored

by Jack Robertson

This year's Homecoming honors the 1921 Washington State Normal School at Bellingham Football Team. Coached by Sam Carver and consisting of only 15 members, the 1921 team compiled a four won, one lost record.

The Normal, as Western was known then, opened the season on a winning note and kept it up for three games, being scored on only once. In those first three games the Normal defeated Sedro-Woolley High School 14-0, Keyport Torpedo Station 28-0, and College of Puget Sound 17-6. The Carver coached team then tasted defeat for the first and only time that season as they dropped a 14-0 decision to the University of Washington Frosh. Then came the final game of the year for Normal. It was just 40 years ago today, on November 11, 1921, that the Normal defeated St. Martins College 6-0 to end the season on a winning note.

The 1921 team under Coach Sam Carver opened the season without a letterman and without a field to practice on. But still Coach Carver developed a winning team.

Members of the team being honored are:

Hi, Grads--The '61 Story

by Jack Robertson

The Western Washington Vikings after winning their first four games, dropped two and came back to win their fifth last weekend when they defeated Pacific Lutheran University 21-14. It was the Viks' second win of the year over PLU as they dropped the Lutherans earlier in the season here at Battersby 'Bog.'

In last week's game the Vikings were without the services of Ken Fry, the team's leading ground gainer and second in the conference in rushing. Ken was out with an injury received in the Whitworth game the previous week, but he should be back for today's game.

PLU opened the scoring last week and it took the Viks almost two full quarters to get the equalizer. With only four minutes remaining in the first half Doug Ringenbach crashed over from the one and Ron Roe added the PAT to send the Viks into a seven-seven tie. Western took the second half kickoff and in 5 plays marched 68 yards for their second TD, a 28 yard pass from Doug Ringenbach to Bob Plotts, Roe added his second extra point and the Viks were ahead 21-14. However, the Lutes marched right back and scored on a 53 yard pass play only three minutes later. Then on the first play of the fourth quarter Myles Phipps recovered a PLU fumble on the 38 yard line and from there Doug Ringenbach marched the Vikings the distance to the goal line with Ron Ladines plunging over from the two yard line, again Roe added the point and the Viks led 21-14.

With the scoring done the Viks then began harassing PLU quarterback Doug McClary as they intercepted three of his passes in the last eight minutes of the game. By intercepting the three passes the Vikings brought their season total for interceptions to 17; this ties the school record set in 1951. So the first time you see a UPS pass intercepted this afternoon you will know that this year's Vikings have a new record in the book.

Today the Vikings are up against the University of Puget Sound, a club they defeated earlier in the year in Tacoma 13-0. In that game the Vikings did not score until the end of the third quarter and then they added a second TD midway through the fourth quarter. Statistic-wise against UPS the Viks had their best day of the year as they picked up 302 yards total offense.

Today the Vikings should be at top strength as everyone is off the injured list. Ron Ladines and Ken Fry, without a doubt the best one/two running combination in the conference, will both be in top shape for the first time this season. This, plus the fact that junior quarterback Doug Ringenbach turned in his best performance in three years against PLU, should give the Vikings another top offensive performance.

This year's Viking defense is one of the best in the Evergreen Conference. It has been giv-
