24 KEN FRY

Ken will be starting on offense tonight for the first time since his injury against Eastern in the second game this year. Ken led the team in rushing last year and was a candidate for Little All-American honors as a halfback.

80 BOB PLOTTS

Bob — 6'1", 190 pound senior — is currently leading the league in pass receiving. This "sticky-fingered" end has caught 10 passes for 198 yards. Is a tiger on defense as well.

32 — DICK NICHOLL

This big halfback had a great game at Eastern. Before being injured he gained 18 yards in that game. He is the leading ground gainer but has been hampered by a bad leg. May see action tonight.

Good Luck, Vikings! from Northwest Washington's Pioneer Radio Station

KGMI RADIO

Tonight the Vikings take on the PLU Knights in what was thought to be a breather. But the Knights have led in two of their ballgames until the last minute against UPS and Eastern Washington. UPS defeated them on a field goal with less than a minute to go and Eastern Washington tied PLU by recovering a fumble for the tie.

Coach Dr. Jim Lounsberry warned the Vikings that this is a strong PLU football team and it will take 60 minutes of good football to win.

The injury list of the Viks gets longer every day as three year letterman Doug Ringenbach will not suit up tonight as he was injured in the Whitworth game last week. Also missing the game will be linebacker Gordy Martin, Freshmen linemen John Slostad and Beau Conine. Leading rusher Dick Nicholl is doubtful and this is a big loss to the Viks as he has continually led the offense this year. Ken Fry will be ready this week to go on both offense and defense.

Prior to last week's Whitworth game, the Viks were ranked 13th in the nation in rushing defense and 21st in the nation in total defense — rushing plus passing. These figures were released by the NAIA Statistical Bureau. The Vikings have allowed only 74.7 yards per game rushing and a total of 156.7 yards per game. Also ranked from the Evergreen Conference were Central and Whitworth.

VIK THE VIKE SAYS:

Assistant Coach Dick Farrar was an All-Pacific Coast guard while playing at Washington State under Jim Sutherland. He was there when Dr. Lounsberry was an assistant coach at WSU . . . Quarterback Terry Parker is leading the Evergreen Conference in passing with 319 yards in 22 completions in 44 attempts. End Bob Plotts is the leading receiver in the conference by grabbing 10 passes for 198 yards according to official conference statistics . . . Ken Burton is second in the conference in punting with an average of 36.9 yards per pick . . . Ron Roe is the third leading scorer with two touchdowns and five PAT's . . . Linebackers Larry Kosoff and Gary Fumano are leading the team in tackles with averaging more than 13 tackles per game.

75 MYLES PHIPPS

The "big" man in the Viking line — Myles stands 6' 2", weighs 210 lbs. Plays both offense and defense at the left tackle slot.

31 LARRY KOSOFF

One of the leading tackles on the team, Larry teams with Gary Fumano at the linebacking spots on the Viking Defensive Unit. One of the real "tough" competitors.

85 GARRY MOORE

6'2", 215-lb. senior, this big end has started for four years and is a great defensive end and pass receiver. Last year he was named All-Conference on both offense and defense.
