Welcome, Grads!

We at Western Washington State College must continue to keep athletics as a laboratory for the study of human conduct. To shift to the spectacular, "big time program," would put us "second rate" without an aim to justify our operations.

An excellent program which will actively illustrate the possibility of utilizing impetuses of creative thinking can uncover sufficient intelligence among college students to test wisdom and permit flexible, progressive adjustment in living.

Science has worked out many answers for athletes but the problems must be guided by a sound educational philosophy.

The Vikings have a long time reputation of sportsmanship in aggressive competition.

Charles F. Lappenbusch
Director of Athletics

The Associated Students take this opportunity to welcome alums to the Homecoming of 1962. We sincerely hope this memorable occasion will give you a chance to renew old friendships, review the progress of the school in facilities and program, and generally have a good time. If there is anything that we may assist you with in these Homecoming activities or in the general program during the year, we will be most happy to help in any way possible.

Sincerely,
Mike Hyatt,
President, Associated Students
Western Washington State College

Queen Sigrid XXV and Her Court

SANFORD E. CARVER GYMNASIUM

This one million dollar gymnasium, completed last fall, was named for Sam Carver, who was a long-time teacher and coach at Western and a member of the Hall of Fame. With the new Civic Stadium, Civic Baseball Field and Carver Gymnasium, the Vikings have the best facilities in the Evergreen Conference. The gymnasium will be able to seat 4300 with installation of another section of seats. The three gym floors are being used every day for classes. After school the basketball team uses the main floor, the wrestling team uses gym C and the intramurals have the other floor.

KGMI RADIO

The Western Washington State College Vikings were defeated by the league-leading U. P. S. Loggers in Tacoma last Saturday 13-7 as the Loggers marched 90 yards in the fourth quarter. Earlier in the third quarter the Vikings had marched 80 yards in ten plays to lead 7-6. The score held until the drive with Gary Dasso scoring with 4½ minutes left in the game. The loss puts the Vikings in 3rd place in the Evergreen Conference standings with a 2-2-1 record. The Viks are 3-2-1 for the season.

For the Viks Saturday, Ken Fry led the ball-carriers by gaining 83 yards in 15 carries. Ron Roe gained 45 yards in 15 carries. Quarterback Terry Parker passed for 67 yards to raise his season total to 438 yards in passing. He has completed 35 of 79 for 44.3 per cent.

Defensively the "tackling twins" Larry Kosoff and Gary Fumano put on another fine show as they tackled 15 and 17 Loggers respectively. The two linebackers are both averaging more than 15 tackles a game for the six games. Matt Kjelstad grabbed 10 Loggers and Gary Moore 8.

This week the Vikings meet the Eastern Savages in the new Civic Field. As it will be Homecoming for Western they will try to improve on their 14-7 victory over Eastern in Cheney on September 29 this year. Probable offensive starting line-up includes: Ends Gary Moore and Bob Plotts or Keith Shugarts; Tackles John Fullerton and Myles Phipps; Guards Joe Reasons and Dave Alfred; Center Gary Fumano (Capt.); Quarterback Terry Parker; Halfbacks Ron Roe and Ken Fry and Wingback Doug Ringenbach.

WELCOME BACK GRADS

The Western Washington State College Vikings have managed to bring a winning record into the Homecoming game despite a season filled with injuries to key personnel throughout the season. The Vikings started the season with a belief that this was the year for another championship team. We all felt it this year! Ken Fry was the first to be out with injuries. He was injured against U. B. C. in the season opener and then really crunched the next week against Eastern in the first quarter. Ken missed two games and now is just beginning to go full strength again. Then late in the last quarter Dick Nicholl suffered an ankle injury after gaining 118 yards. He was slowed down with his leg until he suffered a separated sternum against P. L. U. — the first game that Fry was able to play offense. Then Doug Ringenback was injured against Whitworth. Bob Plotts was injured against U. P. S., and is still on the doubtful list for return to action.

Despite the injuries, Western has never given up. The Viks started the season with a hard fought win against U. B. C. by the score 26-6. Sophomore Terry Parker proved he was a college quarterback by directing the offense to 248 yards — 106 of it was passing. The next week they traveled to Cheney where the Eastern Savages held the Vikings for three quarters before the Viks scored two touchdowns to win 14-7. The Viks gained 274 yards rushing and 44 yards passing. Nicholl rolled up 118 yards rushing.

Then Central managed to tie the Viks as the Vikings played their finest game of the year. The statistician for the Wildcats was heard saying at the end of the game "We were glad to come out of that one with a tie." Whitworth used their heavy line to great advantage as the Viking's defense did a great job in stopping Whitworth drives. Whitworth won the game by a score of 16-7.

Pacific Lutheran University came to town to be met by a determined Western squad. The Viking defense contained the hard running of Ray Gish and Keith Shahan to defeat the Knights 13-7 on Ron Roe's 71-yard touchdown run. Last weekend the U. P. S. Loggers "fourth quartered" the Vikings as they came back from a 7-6 score to win the game 13-7. The Loggers are leading the Evergreen Conference.

Today the Vikings are ready to show the home fans what a fine ball club that Dr. Jim Lounsberry has really put together. With All-Conference Ken Fry and Ron Roe at halfbacks the Viking ground game should show the crowd a fine afternoon. Roe is currently leading the team in rushing by gaining 284 yards in 6 games for an average of 5.1 yards per carry. Ken Fry is second with 230 yards in 5 games for an average of 4.9 yards per carry.

In the passing department Terry Parker, the sophomore from Tacoma, has thrown 79 times, completed 35 for an average of 45 percent and 438 yards. His prime target has been senior end Bob Plotts who has grabbed 12 passes for 215 yards. The other starting end Gary Moore has picked off 8 passes for 116 yards.

Defensively the Viks have the "tackling twins" Gary Fumano and Larry Kosoff. These senior linebackers have averaged more than 15 tackles per game this year to lead the team. Fumano, the captain of the Viks, also calls defensive signals. Matt Kjelstad is another defender who averages more than 9 tackles per game. The Vikings are currently 21st in the nation in pass defense limiting their opposition to an average of 53.1 yards per game.

Coach Jim Lounsberry loses only 9 players from the squad via graduation this year. Captain Gary Fumano, Larry Kosoff, and Matt Kjelstad will be missing from the defensive unit while Ken Fry, Doug Ringenbach, Dick Nicholl, Bob Plotts and Gary Moore will be absent next fall from the starting offensive unit.
