Dr. Paul Woodring

Welcome to Alumni

Alumni who are returning to the campus after an absence of several years will find many changes. But we hope that you will also find much that is familiar — much that reflects the stability and long-range continuity of the college. Old Main, the Knoll, and Memory Walk have not changed very much except that new numbers have been placed on the walk to indicate that time moves on.

Old-timers among the alumni will note that college students get younger every year — or at least they appear younger to us — and that the faculty includes many new faces. But they will also find some among the faculty who were here in the twenties and thirties and still more who were here in the forties and fifties. All of us are delighted to welcome you back to Western.

Dr. Paul Woodring
Interim President

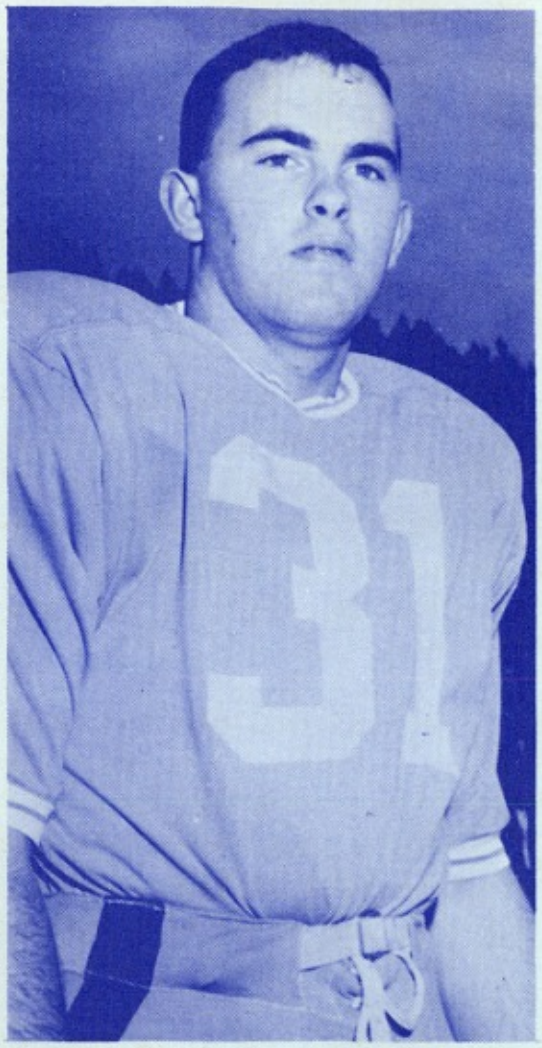

A State University of Iowa professor was appointed the new president of the college by the Board of Trustees in late September. He is Dr. Harvey C. Bunke, 42-year-old professor and chairman of the Department of Economics at Iowa. Bunke will take over as the seventh president of the college February 1 replacing Dr. Paul Woodring, interim president.

Bunke, an economic philosopher and prolific writer on the subject, is the author of many articles in leading scholarly journals.

Dr. Bunke and his wife, Peg, have three children Marty, 12, Ricky, 9, and Chris, 8.

TODAY'S GAME

One of the oldest football rivalries in the state will be resumed this afternoon as the Vikings of Western meet the Loggers of the University of Puget Sound for the 38th time in a series that dates back to 1916. In that year the two largest margins of victory were recorded as the State Normal School at Bellingham slaughtered the College of Puget Sound 46-0 and 78-14. The worst setback for the Vikings came in 1932 when the Tacoma team powered to a 30-0 victory.

The University of Puget Sound holds a commanding lead in this series thus far with 21 wins to 13 for Western with three contests ending in ties. Since 1950, the Loggers have won eight of 12 decisions with one draw.

Today's game, however, should produce a victory for the Vikings, thereby evening the series somewhat. Currently the Vikings are in 5th place in the Evergreen Conference with the University of Puget Sound yet to win a league contest this season.

Earlier this season, the Vikings defeated the Loggers 6-0 in Tacoma.

The Loggers are led by Little-All-America candidate Joe Peyton, one of the top twenty pass receivers in the nation. For today's game Coach John Heinrick has chosen sophomore Bruce Orness to do the quarterbacking chores. Defensively the UPS team is led by senior guard Tom Rawlings and linebacker Kent Chisman.

Pacing Western's "kiddie corps" defensive outfit in today's game will be 17-year-old Bob Eaton, 18-year-old Basil Tomberlin, 19-year-old Gary Axtell, and 20-year-old Bruce Delbridge. The entire defensive team contains but one senior and includes four freshmen and five sophomores and barely averages 19 years of age.

Hardly any older than their defensive counterparts, the Viking offensive machine will field seven sophomores and one freshman. Astonishingly, the number one back-up men for the starting lineup includes seven sophomores and four freshmen!!

It is a pleasure to again welcome our alumni and friends to the Homecoming festivities. Alumni and other visitors to the campus will be pleased to note that work has begun on our much needed expansion of outdoor facilities for class, intramural, recreational and varsity sports activities.

The past year has been a most successful one in athletics at Western and our hopes are high for another good year in 1964-5. It is our hope that Western's family of friends and alumni will find it possible to return during the remainder of the school year to see the other Viking teams in action. I feel confident you would be proud of what you see.

All best wishes for a gala Homecoming weekend.

Grads:

Progress is a key word here at Western today. As you can see, a great many new additions have been added to the campus in the last few years. You might note the new dormitories that have risen, the new addition to the bookstore, or our new library facilities.

I would remind you that all the progress made has not been physical. Within the new buildings and behind those new walls, Western is turning out a better product. Our incoming Freshmen have truly outstanding academic records behind them and our graduating Seniors are in high demand by many fields, not just teacher education.

We are proud of our campus in many ways. Western students point with pride to the bright new physical changes yet we are proud of the recognition we have achieved throughout the nation as an outstanding institution of higher education.

I hope you enjoy this Homecoming and return for many more. Please look around your alma mater so that you can return to tell your friends that Western is moving, growing, and the sky's the limit.

Sincerly yours,

Ralph Munro, President

COACHING STAFF

HEAD COACH.....DR. JAMES LOUNSBERRY

Coach Lounsberry attended Central Washington where he played football until he graduated in 1941. He has since received his Masters and Doctorate from the University of Washington.

Dr. Lounsberry came to Western after successful coaching jobs at Whitworth where he won three league championships from 1952 to 1955, and as an assistant coach under Jim Sutherland at Washington State University until 1959. He became assistant coach at Western in 1959 and stepped up to the head coaching job in 1960.

Coach Lounsberry's record after four years at Western stands at 16-19-1, while his all-time coaching record in the collegiate ranks is an impresive 48-28-2.

ASSISTANT COACH.....DON WISEMAN

Coach Wiseman attended Idaho State College and played halfback for four years from 1950 through 1953. He played football in the service in 1953 and 1954.

He then returned to Idaho State in 1956 as assistant football coach and head swimming coach.

Coach Wiseman came to Western in 1962 from Eugene, Oregon, where he coached soccer, volleyball, and basketball in addition to his teaching duties.

Coach Wiseman is also head swimming coach at Western Washington State College.

ASSISTANT COACH.....STAN LEPROTTI

Coach LeProtti is a newcomer to Western this year. He spent the previous eight years as head football coach and physical education instructor at La Sierra High School in Carmichael, California, where he developed what is probably the most outstanding high school physical education program of our time. Stan's work in promoting physical fitness is attested by the fact that he was appointed to the staff of several physical fitness clinics all over the United States and as a consultant to the President's Council on Youth Fitness.

Prior to his stay at La Sierra, Coach LeProtti was head football coach at Sequoia High School in Redwood City. He has held assistant coaching jobs at San Francisco State College, Contra Costa Junior College, Menlo College, and was student assistant under Lynn Waldorf at the University of California.

LeProtti graduated from San Francisco State College in 1950 and received his Master's from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo, in 1963. He has also done graduate work at the University of California and Stanford University.

ASSISTANT COACH.....TOM WALKER

Coach Walker is a graduate assistant working toward an education degree. Tom attended high school in Vancouver, B. C., and played two years of football at the State University of Iowa. He then played two years as a defensive tackle and offensive guard for the B.C. Lions in the Canadian Professional Football League. Tom has also attended the University of British Columbia and Western.

ASSISTANT COACH.....DAVE ALFRED

Coach Alfred is a graduate assistant working toward an education degree. Dave played four years of football at Western earning second team all-conference honors as a sophomore and all-conference laurels as a junior. Last year Dave captained the Viking squad but was hampered throughout most of the season with a bad back. Coach Alfred will be coaching the offensive and defensive linemen for Western this fall.
