VIC RANDALL
Viking Halfback

Northwest. At the other tackle spot is another 240-pounder, Mike Spane. Spane, a freshman, is from Fife.

Guard positions will be held down by Mike Compton and Mike Tasker. Compton is another fine freshman from Tigard, Oregon, while Tasker, a transfer from Everett J. C., is a sophomore from Auburn.

Two juniors will man the cornerback positions. Steve Gregorich, a letterman from Tacoma, will be on one side. Steve was named defensive captain for 1968 by his team mates and coaches. Across from Gregorich will be transfer Jerry Kelly of Seattle.

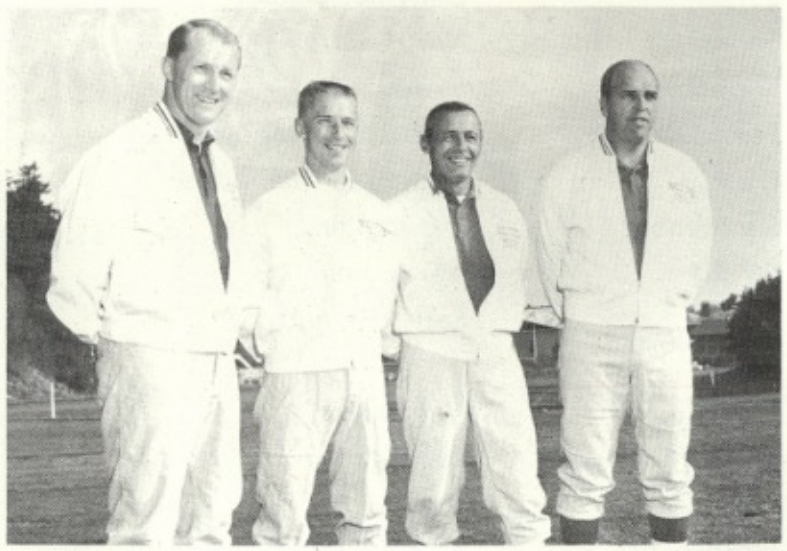

Defensive halfback spots will be filled by two freshman letter winners of 1967, Vic Randall and Gary Aagaard. Randall was an honorable mention All-Conference pick on offense and defense. Vic has already grabbed off two enemy aerials this season, returning one 88 yards for a touchdown. Aagaard is a speedster from Seattle while Randall comes from Burlington.

The all-important linebackers will be picked from among John Martin, Rick Hill, Fred Sundquist and "Rocky" Hughes. Al Anderson, an original LB starter, sustained four broken ribs in the Central contest. Sophomores Martin and Hill hail from Kirkland, Hill being a transfer from the University of Puget Sound. Sundquist, a senior from Seattle, is a three-time letter winner at Western. Hughes, a junior from Bremerton, is a doubtful starter with a badly sprained ankle.

Mike Lynch, a great looking freshman, will start at safety. Lynch from Haney, B. C., led the Viks in tackles last week with 14.

The WWSC punting chores will be handled by Bellingham freshman, Tom Cline; extra points by Glenn Hadland or newly-arrived freshman, Lance Wilson, from Sehome High School in Bellingham.

Coach Emerson sees the contest as a "must" game for his club. A win could launch his hard-hitting youngsters into a winning season. Hopes are up for a repeat of the Viks 17-7 victory over the Clansmen last year in Vancouver. Whatever the outcome, the excitement of college football will again reign over Civic Stadium as the Vikings take the field in their first home game of 1968

WESTERN WASHINGTON COACHING STAFF
Fred Emerson, Jerry Joyce, Stan LaProtti, Boyde Long

Western vs. Simon Fraser

Tonight's game features the Western Washington State College Vikings and the Clansmen of Simon Fraser. The Clansmen are 2-1, having defeated California Western 23-20 and Pacific University 40-0, while losing to powerful New Mexico Highlands 34-9. Western, 0-2, has lost to Central Washington 14-7 and Eastern Washington 30-13.

The Clan is led by All-American candidate Wayne Holm at quarterback. Holm has been the key to the S. F. U. aerial game that has netted nearly 750 yards. His top two receivers are ends Mike Begg and Ted Warkentin.

Simon Fraser also possesses one of the finest kickers in the Northwest in Dave Cutler. The 5-10, 175-pound senior has already hit field goals from 32 and 48 yards.

On the defense the Clansmen are led by another All-American candidate Rob McLaren. McLaren, a middle linebacker, was outstanding in the Cal Western win, making nine unassisted tackles and a key pass interception.

Lorne Davies, Head Coach and Athletic Director at Simon Fraser, is no stranger to Western Washington Campus. In the early fifties he quarterbacked the Vikings under then Head Coach Chuck Lappenbusch. After a five-year stay in Canada, Davies returned to Western as an assistant coach in 1957. That year he witnessed the offensive heroics of the young Fred Emerson, head coach to be of the Vikings. After coaching stints with the B.C. Lions and the University of British Columbia, Davies went to S. F. U. in 1965.

Head Coach Fred Emerson will pit a young but very aggressive Western team against the more experienced Canadians. Only three Seniors are on the Vik roster with the majority being sophomores and freshmen. Nonetheless, Emerson calls his 1968 club "my finest yet."

The Viks will have an all-new-look on offense. From the "I" formation of the last two years has come a multiple offense consisting of variations of the straight-T, single-wing and "I".

Leading the Western attack are two very capable quarterbacks, Steve Kearby and Glenn Harland. Kearby is a Yakima J. C. transfer while Hadland backed up graduated Pat Brewin for the Viks in 1967.

Mark Venn will be the new fullback starter. Venn, a freshman from Mount Si, had a fine initial performance against Eastern. Backing him up is hard-running John Weaver, a Vancouver, B. C., product.

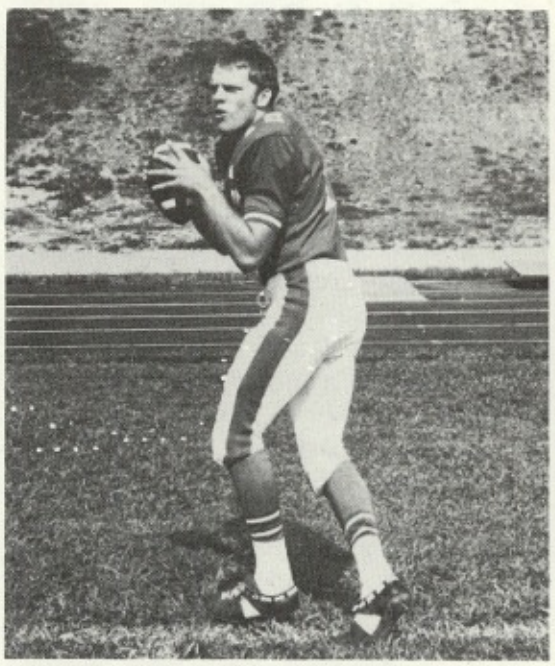

Halfbacks include Rob Lonborg and Frank Toth with an occasional appearance from Vic Randall, who has been seeing mostly defensive action in Emerson's two-platoon system this season. Lonborg, a sophomore from Elma had a fine game against Central, being named WWSC "Back-of-the-week." Toth, a runner with lots of potential, is a Seattle junior.

The Viking offensive line will have All-State J. C. transfer Tony Hawkins at center. Hawkins, who attended Everett J. C., is a junior from Ferndale. The guard slots will be filled by two 1967 lettermen, Pat Flannery and John Martin. Flannery is a junior from Auburn and Martin a sophomore from Kirkland. At tackles will be two-time letter winner Bob Penny and freshman Rich Boyd from Port Angeles. Penny is a Nathan Hale graduate from Seattle.

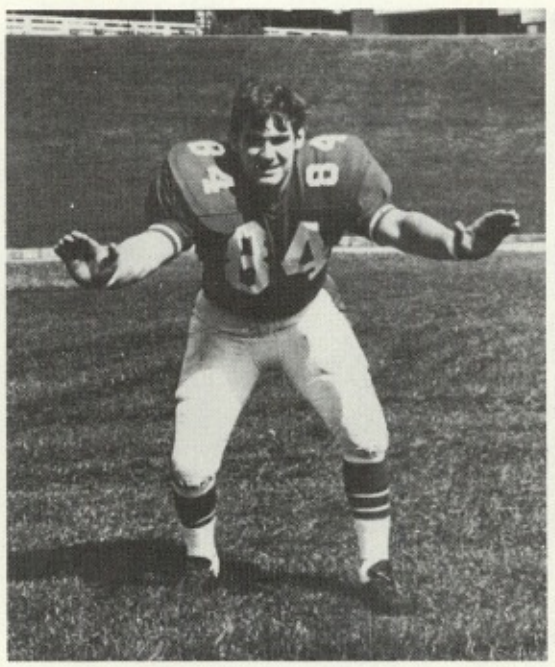

Rounding out the Vik offensive alignment at ends are Gordy Belka and Pat Healey. Belka, a University of Washington transfer, is a junior from Bellingham while Healy, a sophomore, hails from Seattle.

The Western defensive line has only one member from its 1967 All-Conference foursome returning. He is tackle Butts Giraud, a 240-pound giant from Vancouver, B.C. Giraud last year was named All-Evergreen Conference, N.A.I.A. District One and A. P. Little, All-
