THIS SATURDAY'S COLLEGE FOOTBALL CLASH

Western Washington vs. CWSC

Western Washington's "Vikings," coached by Fred Emerson, open their 1969 home season tonight against Central Washington State College.

Coach Tom Parry's "Wildcats" are the defending Evergreen Conference champions and will feature one-half of the 1968 All-EvCo backfield in quarterback Harvey Kochel and halfback Steve Hertling.

Kochel was third in conference total offense last season, with 867 yards, and second in passing; completing 74 of 175 aerials for 942 yards, though he had 15 intercepted.

Hertling, the league's fourth laeding rusher with 402 yards, is also a constant threat on punt and kickoff returns.

Rounding out the Central backfield will be Bob Franklin and Steve Stanley. Franklin starred in last week's win over Whitworth, while Stanley is currently their rushing leader with 33 carries for 140 yards.

Leading the "Wildcats" big offensive line is tackle Dan Collins. The 6-2, 230 pound senior was named to the N.A.I.A. All-America team last season.

The "Wildcats" got off to a fine start in defending their crown last weekend defeating Whitworth 15-3 in their conference lidlifter at Ellensburg. They had previously been defeated by Boise State, 37-7, and the University of Hawaii, 38-6.

For the "Vikings" of Western it has been a discouraging start. They lost to Cal Poly, 44-0, in their season opener and then dropped a defensive struggle to Eastern Washington last Saturday, 14-7, at Cheney.

But despite these setbacks the Vikings, with a win tonight, have a good chance for the conference title, in what could be the hottest race in recent years.

Quarterbacking the Viks will be either Glenn Hadland or Steve Kearby. Hadland, who ended last season in spectacular fashion, has earned the starting nod the previous two contests, but Kearby appears to be coming into his own. Last week he hit halfback Tom Frank on an 81-yard touchdown pass for the Viks only score.

Frank, a transfer from the University of Washington, seems ready to break loose. The speedster has the ability to score anywhere on the field at any time.

Completing the backfield will be halfback Rob Lonborg and fullback John Weaver. Lonborg is currently leading Viking rushers with a 3.6 yards per carry average.

Fine receiver Gary Aagaard will probably miss today's contest due to a recurrance of an old knee injury. The tall, sure-handed, junior has already grabbed nine passes for 110 yards this year.

Leading the Vik defensive unit is Vic Randall. Randall, a junior from Burlingotn, has made two pass interceptions this season to tie the WWSC career interception mark of eleven set by All-American safety Steve Richardson (1963-1966).

Another defensive stalwart will be burly, 245-pound Butts Giraud. The huge tackle was an honorable mention selection to the 1968 National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (N.A.I.A.) All-America squad.

Other outstanding defensive players are defensive halfback Mike Lynch, linebacker Jerry Kelly and ends Steve Gregorich and Mike Tasker.

To date the defense has already made five interceptions and five fumble recoveries.

With continued good effort by the defensive unit and the breaking open of a potentially fine offense the Viks hope to make this their home opener a springboard to success in 1969, as football once again goes "Western Style!"

Break your beard in right.

Right now your beard is in the formative stage.

You can shave it with a razor blade like your father does. And each time you do your beard will grow back a little more difficult. Until one day shaving's no longer a chore. It's an agony.

Look no further than your father's face for proof.

But fortunately, you're catching your beard at an early age. You can break it in to be just as shaveable 10 and 20 years from now as it is today.

With a REMINGTON® Lektro Blade shaver.

And if you think the kind of shave we're selling won't be close enough for you, you're wrong.

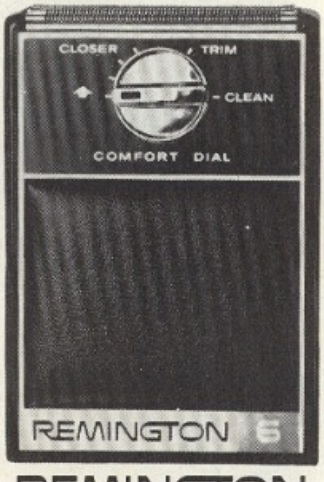

Our new Lektro Blade shaver has very sharp disposable blades. Just like a razor. So it gives very close shaves. Just like a razor.

What's more, you can dial a Lektro Blade shaver into a sideburn trimmer.

Admittedly, it costs more to buy our electric shaver than a razor and some blades.

But it's a good investment.

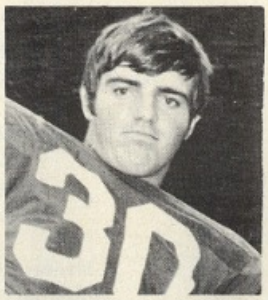

These next few years will determine how you and your beard will get along for the rest of your lives.

OUR SPORTS PROGRAM FOR THIS SEASON

Chrysler weather has arrived. Falling leaves take off on the wind—and our 1970 Chrysler Corporation lineup takes the field.

For a starter, Plymouth 1970 makes it with the Rapid Transit System: The fabulous Barracuda Series. Valiant Duster 340. And the imperturbable Plymouth GTX.

Or you could be Dodge material. Find out with a run in the cars with the bumblebee stripe: The Challenger. Charger 500. Dart Swinger 340. Coronet Super Bee.

The loaded lineup. Performance on wheels, waiting for the moment you take over.

And while you're thinking about it—relax, sit back and enjoy the game.

What Is Football?

Combat...100-Yard War...Test of a Man

By WELLS TWOMBLY

It is a brutal game, for men only, that demands a fresh blood sacrifice every weekend. It is gallantry personified, the closest thing to gladiatorial combat that a merciful society permits. It is mock warfare, stern and awful, yet strangely stimulating. Its mystique is largely muscular, but its appeal can be intellectual, especially if you are watching from a secure position in the stands.

Outsiders may be thrilled by its spectacle, but non-combatants never fully will know what the game really means to those who risk their bones, their flesh and their reasoning power to play it. Only a participant can understand its true nature. Only a man who has left a little of his body on the field can love it with a religious passion.

It thrives on heroism. It glorifies manliness. It also has a shameless tendency to deify those brave fools who leave hospital beds to go to war with wired jaws, broken bones and damaged muscles deadened by a hypodermic needle. Purple bruises and scarred knees are its military decorations. It openly scorns weaklings. It obeys a code of honor that would make a Spartan wince. It demands all these things and then becomes bitterly offended when someone classifies its participants as "animals."

A Bonanza for Promoters

For all its 1920 bravado, it is at the mercy of the infidels, school boards and college alumni and promoters who manipulate multi-million dollar business enterprises. It is not safe from interference on any level of its existence.

It is not a game where losing is tolerated for even a second. It is a game of oaths and slogans and battle cries, blatantly plastered on locker room walls. The emphasis is always on winning, regardless of badly dated verse about "how you play the game." It wasn't true then. It is less so now.

Football is a fickle beast. The coach who strings victories together like a diamond necklace is coddled by crowds and treated like an Oriental despot. Grateful subjects pile gifts at his toes. Losers are hung in effigy. It is the way the code operates. Winners get rich, stragglers are shot.

How you regard football depends pretty much on where you live. Along the eastern seaboard, it is a cultural exercise. In the Midwest, it is a form of symbolic cannibalism. On the West Coast, it is a stimulant for tourism. In the South, it is a community project. In the Southwest it is a folk religion and Friday, Saturday and Sunday are Holy Days of obligation in the autumn months.

Football cannot be played at just any time of year, in any surroundings, as the television networks may come to realize. The game is the focal point of a large universe. It creates its own unique atmosphere, it mass produces nostalgia. There must be a crowded stadium with cartwheeling cheerleaders shouting inanities through megaphones. The goal posts have to be wrapped in colored paper. The tribal totems, the mascots, the bears, the owls, the papier mache eagles, the students in tiger suits, must be present.

Corsage for Every Coed

It is essential that toothsome coeds be present in droves. Next to every pretty pink cheek there must be a chrysanthemum corsage. Their dates must laugh loudly, talk knowingly about strategy and carry a container of strong spirits. A band must be booming and alumni must be sullen, but not mutinous.

What is football? It is not an original game. It was put together out of equal parts of soccer, rugby and American imagination. It has absolutely no hold on foreigners. Even Canadians, who ought to understand us and our quaint games if anyone in the world should, don't think we play football with enough men, so they prudently add a fifth back.

To the English, it is a dreadful bore. Too many timeouts, not enough continuous action, don't you know, old chap.

Football is a game that insists a quarterback be not only a great athlete, but a genius as well, and then attempts to devise a means by which the defense can separate him from his intellect forever. It is a game that attempts to convince the dean that it is as complex as nuclear physics. But when it is third down and short yardage, science takes a terrible flogging on the field.

What is football? It is Chicken Little Tech rising in a mighty wrath and blowing Moose Jaw University out of the Top Ten. It is some skinny sophomore, who wants to play, making a second stringer out of last year's All-America, who doesn't want to play.

What is football? It is a snake dance in the street and a crackling bonfire. It is the last stand of the F. Scott Fitzgerald-razzamataz in a mod, mod world. It is a bloody nose, a maternal tear and a block letter on the pocket of a white sweater. It is four months without a cigarette or a female companion, the secret joy of self-denial because you are 17, a fullback and in training. It is a coal miner son's only opportunity to study chemistry free of charge. It is a passport out of the filth of the ghetto. It is the plaything of a millionaire's idle child, whose only true accomplishment is spending money on a professional club that keeps the public entertained.

Pro's Kneecap Missing

What is football? It is a ten-year pro, just retired, proudly showing a reporter where his right knee cap used to be. It is a snow storm on the last day of the season with defensive linemen swirling out of the mists to throw a white-shirted halfback they can barely see into a drift.

It is a big, big man croaking the Alma Mater on graduation day, tears rippling down his battered cheeks, while wispy classmates in beards and side curls march out in protest against the system.

What is football? It is a head coach fired from his only job and placed on the unwanted list for saying accurate, but unkind, things about the club owner. He sits there explaining to friends that he can't sell insurance. "Football was mother and father to me when I was a kid. I can't give it up now, just because he doesn't want me," he says.

What is football? It is the awful stillness just before the order comes to take the field. It is the disgust that comes with a plane ride home after a loss. It is champagne drizzling down a weary neck that feels no pain because the moment is too sweet. It is the blast of excitement that fills your chest when you run up the dugout steps into a stadium crammed with humanity. It is a one-handed catch, a brain-rattling block, a missed field goal, a wobbling punt and a last-second touchdown pass.

What is football? It is mock combat, a 100-yard war. But more than that, it is the ultimate test of a man. Pure and simple.
