WESTERN WASHINGTON STATE vs. UNIVERSITY OF PUGET SOUND

KEY-INFORMATION—Tonight the Vikings of Western Washington do battle with the University of Puget Sound Loggers in a non-conference football clash.

Coach Boyde Long's Vikings are 2-2 on the year, losing a tough game to Simon Fraser last week 7-0, though out-distancing the Clansmen in total yards 438 to 222.

Overall Western leads the Evergreen Conference in both total offense and defense, gaining an average of 351 yards per game while giving up only 243 per contest.

On pass defense the Vikings are ranked 18th in the NAIA with the opposition managing only 85 yards a game through the air. The Big Blue secondary has given up only one touchdown pass.

Quarterback Glenn Hadland set three school records last week. Not only did he pass for a game record 251 yards, but in so doing set career passing and total offense records held formerly by quarterback Pat Brewin (1965-67). Hadland's totals to date are 2251 yards passing and 2488 total offense.

Sophomore end Steve Jasmer set yet another school game record, catching passes good for 143 yards.

Another top performer on offense has been fullback Tom Wigg. Last week the Issaquah sophomore rushed for 100 net yards while catching passes for another 73.

The offensive line, which has been consistantly opening large holes is composed of center John Martin, guards Marv Nelson and Jeff Baglio, and tackles Mike Knutsen and Ken Knuckey.

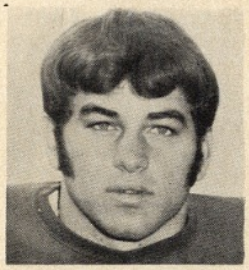

Defensively the Vikings have a light but extremely tough front line made up of ends Mike Tasker and Rich Nominni and tackles Jeff Michaelson and Ray Kelley. Last week Kelley, though Mike Jackson, and Jim Kleitsch operate.

Overall the Loggers are young, but have 22 lettermen returning from last year's team which finished 7-2.

UPS officials feel that if their offense can get moving they can be extremely tough the second half of this season.

The Viking defense will be out to stop this from happening while the Big Blue offense will concentrate on curbing costly tunrovers that plagued otherwise brilliant drives last week.

weighing only 185 pounds, knifed through to make 15 tackles.

The linebacking corps of Ivor Hoglund, Mark Venn, Dan Grimshaw and Tony Parker has to be the toughest in the league. Parker, who saw his first action last week, was an All-Metro league linebacker for Garfield High School in Seattle last year.

UPS brings to Bellingham a team with an overall record of 2-3. The ledger belies the Logger strength though as the losses have been to such powerhouses as Santa Clara, Sacramento State and Portland State. Their wins have come over the University of Redlands and last week over Pacific Lutheran University, 24-7.

Coach Bob Ryan's Loggers are led by senior quarterback Bob Cason. Last year Cason set a new UPS total offense record of 1081 as the back-up signal-caller.

Cason's favorite receivers have been halfback Mark Ross and end Ellis Cain. Both are seniors.

The Logger offensive line, which averages 228 ponds, is led by center Jerry Meyerhoff.

Defensively Puget Sound has a tough front line centered around All-Northwest middle guard Bob Lucey.

The secondary is strong basically at the linebacker positions where seniors Roy Bogrand,
