SEASON FINALE: WESTERN WASHINGTON vs. OREGON TECH.

KEY-INFORMATION—Today's game features the Western Washington Vikings against the Oregon Tech Owls.

The Vikings, coached by Boyde Long, will be trying to end the 1970 campaign on a winning note. Last week they suffered a morale-crushing defeat at the hands of Central Washington, 24-7, in a titantic struggle that wasn't decided until the final quarter.

Western, 4-1 in Evergreen Conference action, is second in the league behind Central 4-0. The Wildcats host Southern Oregon (1-8) in a conference battle also this afternoon. Overall, Western is 4-5 on the year.

Six standout seniors will be playing in their final game for Western. They are tight end, Neil Crawford; linebacker, Guy Generaux; halfback, Ron Lonborg; center, John Martin; safety, Vic Randall and defensive end, Mike Tasker.

Oregon Tech, coached by Neil Garrett, is 0-8 on the year but have been coming on strong in their last three games, especially on offense.

Currently the Owls are ranked fifth in the Evco offensively and last defensively.

Freshman quarterback Steve Dunsworth leads the Owl offense. The youngster has accumulated nearly 1000 yards in total offense and looks to be a real threat both passing and running.

Heading the Oregon Tech running game is senior Frank Teicheira. The 5-8, 197-pounder is ranked second among Evco running backs.

Blocking effectively for Teichera has been tackle Mike Edwards. All-Oregon Collegiate Conference last year, Edwards weighs in at 318 pounds which makes him the biggest player in the conference.

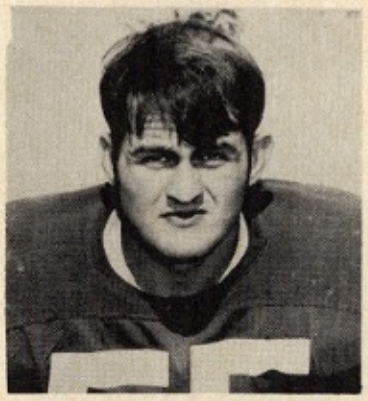

Quarterback Glenn Hadland, who has thrown for 1105 yards this season will head

Both have broken the Viking season tackle mark of 117 set by linebacker Monty Montgomery in 1967.

All in all the 1970 season has been one to remember. Statistically the Vikings have set many new standards, but they have also set one in effort as well.

A win today would give Western a 5-5 record overall and a 5-1 conference mark, one of which all team mebers could be justly proud.

The Vikings would also like to crack a jinx that Civic Stadium has over them as they have not won a home game yet this year.

the Viking attack. He is backed by two top rushers in fullback Tom Wigg and halfback Jody Miller. Wigg has rushed for 644 yards and Miller 333.

Wigg has an outside chance of establishing a new WWSC season record in yards rushing. The Issaquah sophomore needs 103 to break the mark of 746 set by Bob Gidner in 1964. Twice this season Wigg has rushed for over 100 yards.

End Steve Jasmer has already set a new WWSC reception yardage mark. The Bethel sophomore has made 22 catches for 429 yards thus far.

Randall, an All-America candidate as a defensive safety, could set a new Viking career standard in pass-receiving. The Burlington mighty mite has caught passes good for 851 yards in limited action as a flankerback and is within reach of the mark of 907 yards set by Bob Plotts (1959-62).

With two interceptions last week, Randall now has seven for the season and has outside chance of breaking his own record season mark of 8 set last year. His career record total is now 24.

Also outstanding on defense have been linebackers Mark Venn and Dan Grimshaw.
