Athletic Booster Club Formed At Western

Formation of the Viking Athletic Associates, a booster organization to support and advance the Western Washington University athletic program, was announced in early August by Boyde Long, director of men's athletics.

"This organization is going to allow Western to have the type of athletic program it should have," Long said. "That is one of excellence."

"It isn't going to mean overnight success, but it's a big step in the right direction," he added.

The Viking Athletic Associates is a vehicle by which individuals, businesses and corporations can make tax deductible contributions to the athletic department or to a designated sport.

"To be successful, we must have involvement from the community and our alumni," Long stated. "We need their support as fans and we need their support financially."

Becoming the first member of the Viking Athletic Associates was Western President Paul J. Olscamp, who contributed $1,000 to the organization.

"Encouraging us to form this organization is an indication that this administration is more supportive of athletics than at any time in Western's history," said Long. "They're totally behind what we're doing."

Western President Paul J. Olscamp (L) hands check for $1,000 to Director of Men's Athletics Boyde Long to become the first member of the Viking Athletic Associates.

"Our major concern now is finding those people who want to be on the ground floor of this undertaking," he continued. "We don't have any specific goals, the sky is the limit."

There are four membership levels of the Viking Athletic Associates for donations ranging from $25 to more than $1,000. They include Viking (25-99), Big Blue (100-249), Victory (250-999) and President (1,000 and up).

Associates' benefits include decals, newsletters, hats, season tickets, luncheons, post-game functions and reserved parking at basketball games.

TODAY'S GAME:

WESTERN WASHINGTON vs. WHITWORTH

With only one chance remaining to enter the win column prior to opening Evergreen Conference play next week, the Western Washington University football team hosts Whitworth College this evening at Bellingham's Civic Stadium.

"Without question, we've got to win this game," said head Coach Boyde Long. "There's no way we want to go into conference play 0-4."

The Vikings dropped their third game in as many starts last week, losing 30-14 to Willamette University. They had a total offense output of 344 yards in that contest, but allowed the Bearcats 384.

"The offense really came alive except for the fumbles (eight, lost three)," Long said, "but I wasn't very pleased with the defense which gave up a lot of big plays."

Quarterback Matt Beck passed for 197 yards, completing 18 of 33 attempts. That included a 13-yard touchdown toss to wide receiver Bill Handy, who made eight catches for 124 yards.

Handy now ranks fourth on the all-time Western career pass-receiving list with 1,012 yards on 61 receptions, including eight for touchdowns, during his three years as a Viking.

Wingback Randy Carlson rushed for 53 yards, scoring on a three-yard burst, while fullback Chris Ladines ran for 60 yards. Ladines leads the team in rushing with 142 yards.

Outside linebacker Ty Murphy recovered his second fumble of the season in the Willamette contest, while safety Scott Friedrich and cornerback Steve Clausen intercepted passes.

Western's other losses have been to defending NAIA national champion and currently number one ranked Pacific Lutheran 23-0 and Linfield 36-7.

Whitworth also is 0-3, dropping a 22-12 decision to Central Washington last week after leading 10-9 early in the fourth quarter. Its other losses have been to Eastern Oregon 44-20 (led 20-16 at halftime) and Western Oregon 19-8.

Returning to action in the Central contest was quarterback Dan Harder, who sustained a rib injury in the Pirates' opener. Two fine receivers are split end John Dorr (11 catches for 146 yards, 2 TDs) and flankerback Tom Taylor (9 catches for 117 yards).

Heading the defense is middle linebacker Curt Carr, a second-team Little All-Northwest selection last year.

First-year Coach Bruce Grambo has two outstanding specialists in all-district punter Tim Frisbee, a senior from Mount Vernon, and placekicker Rik Pearson.

Frisbee ranked 13th nationally (NAIA) in 1980 with an 40.8 average. He is averaging 38.2 yards this season, including a 72-yarder against Central.

Pearson has booted three field goals, the longest being a school record 59-yarder versus Eastern Oregon.

VIKING NOTES: Beck ranks second among NAIA District I passers, having thrown for 462 yards. He has completed 44 of 86 attempts for a .512 percentage . . . Handy tops district pass-receivers with 272 yards (90.7 avg.) on 15 catches . . . Western leads in its series with Whitworth 18-17-0. Last year the Pirates won 47-12 at Spokane, but had to forfeit the game due to the use of an ineligible player . . . The Vikings are averaging 232.7 yards in total offense (78.7 rushing and 154.0 passing), while giving up 389.7 (176.3 rushing and 213.3 passing) . . . Cornerback Scott Kimmel leads Western in tackles with 30, followed by a trio of linebackers, Tom Houvener (second-team Little All-Northwest pick last year) 22, the Magnuson brothers, Jeff 22 and Jim 21; and tackle Greg Schenck 21 . . . Quarterback Eric Ummel is available for duty after suffering a severely strained knee in a pre-season scrimmage. He started as a freshman last year, passing for 634 yards before suffering a separated shoulder at mid-season.

A Brew Apart

To please a lot of people, a premium beer has to know the way to prime-quality hops, first-rate grains, and pure mountain water. But above all else it must deliver fine taste. Today one beer does it all . . . Mountain Fresh Rainier. And that's what sets Rainier apart from the rest of the herd.
