

Western Washington vs. Puget Sound — Nov. 3, Civic Stadium

The air will be filled with footballs this afternoon as Western hosts University of Puget Sound (UPS) in an Evergreen Conference (Evco) gridiron contest.

Viking quarterback Dave Peterson ranks fourth among NAIA Division 1 passers, averaging 253.6 yards per game, while UPS signal-caller Roy Medley is fifth with a 244.1 average.

Coach Paul Hansen's squad is 2-5 overall and 2-3 in Evco play. It lost 17-7 to league co-leader Simon Fraser University (SFU) last week after going into the fourth quarter with a 7-0 lead.

Peterson raised his season passing total to 1,775 yards (149 of 281, .530, 10 Int., 7 TDs) as he threw for 330 yards (24 of 53) against Simon Fraser. That figure surpasses the Western record of 1,773 yards established by Bill Mendelson in 1976.

Peterson and split end Dan Brigham broke another WWU mark by combining on a 98-yard pass play for the Vikings' only touchdown. The previous best was 81 yards (Steve Kearby to Tom Frank) in 1969 versus Eastern Washington University.

Western has 20 pass interceptions this fall (school record is 27 in 1977) after picking off four aerials against Simon Fraser. Safety Tim Richard had one pass theft to put his season total to seven, which ranks him second nationally. Cornerback Thomas Mosby intercepted two passes and had eleven tackles.

The Vikings lead all northwest small colleges in takeaway ratio with a plus 17. They have forced 30 turnovers, while losing the ball only 13 times.

Tight ends Ken Sager and Trey Cummings have combined for 53 catches. Sager has made 32 grabs for 349 yards and three touchdowns, while Cummings has 21 receptions for 269 yards and one TD.

Puget Sound, which is the defending Evco champion, has a 4-3 season record (three losses have been by a total of nine points) and a 3-2 league mark. The Loggers have dropped close decisions to tough opponents the past two weeks, losing 21-20 to Southern Oregon State College and 14-12 to Central Washington University (ranked third nationally in Division 1 poll). Prior to that they had won four straight games (including 32-22 win over Pacific Lutheran University) after a season-opening 30-24 loss to Linfield College.

UPS is averaging 27 points and 391.7 yards in total offense. Medley has passed for 1,709 yards (126 of 227, .555, 14 Int.) and 14 touchdowns. His top two receivers are split end Brian Burdick (20 catches for 287 yards, 1 TD) and tight end Greg Finkbonner (graduate of Ferndale High School — 24 catches for 315 yards, 5 TDs).

Halfback Todd McGrady has run for 319 yards (4.9 apc) and caught 13 passes for 192 yards, scoring five touchdowns.

Heading the defense (312.7 avg.) for Evco Coach of the Year Ron Simonson (7th year, 49-20) are honorable mention All-America tackle Paul Akers (245), safety Brad Gobel (six pass thefts in 1983), cornerback Rich Lamonica (two pass interceptions and two fumble recoveries) and linebacker Tim Manke (190).

Second-team Little All-Northwest kicker Jim Beckman has scored 35 points, connecting on 17 of 20 PAT tries and six of ten field goal attempts.

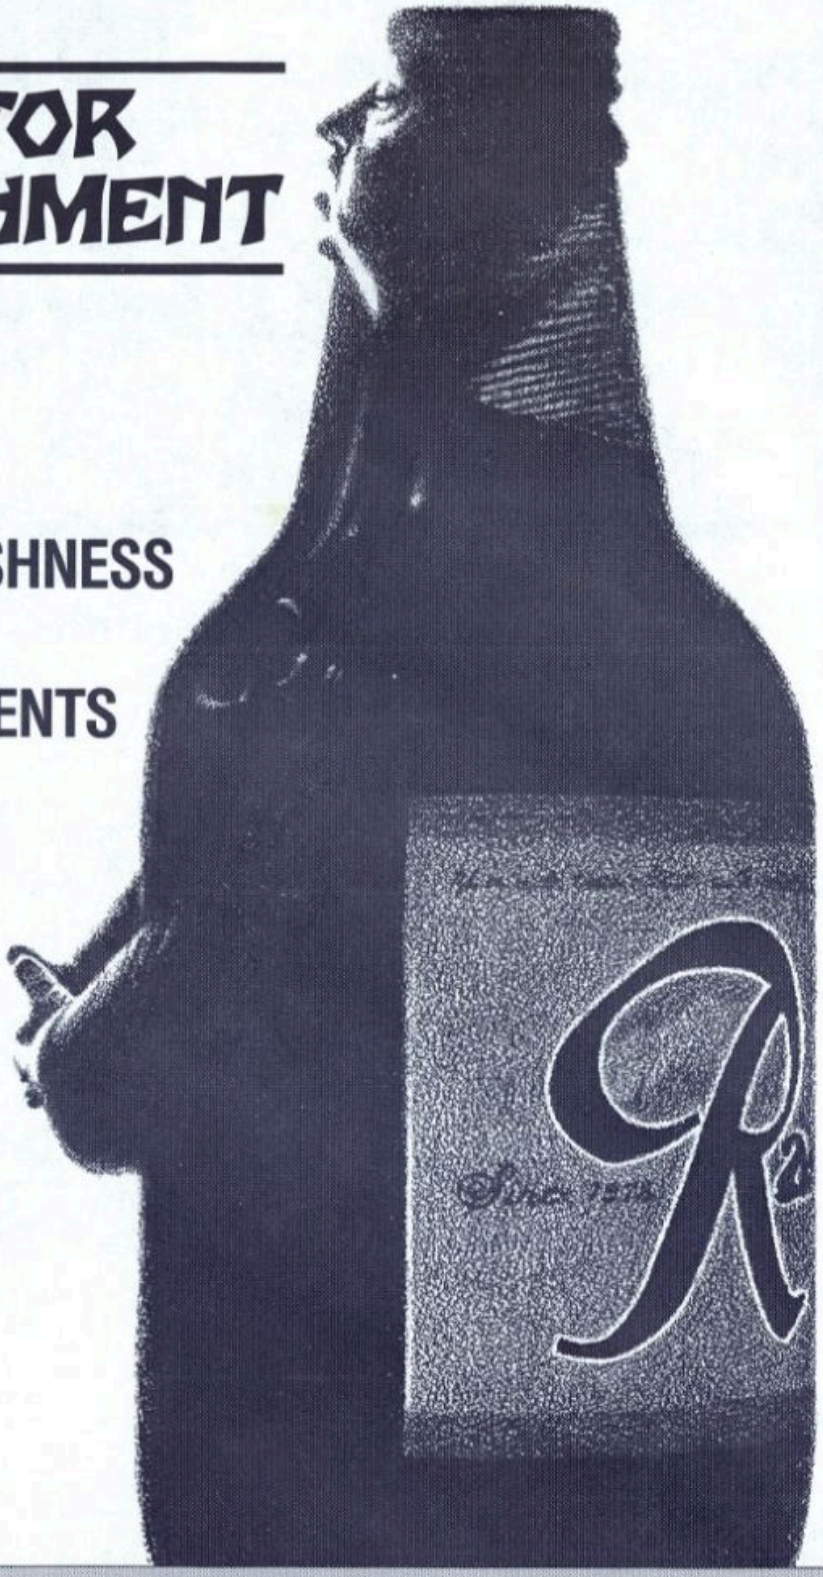

VIKING NOTES: Peterson ranks fifth nationally in total offense (251.9 avg.) . . . Cornerback Adrian Shields rates fourth among Division 1 punt returners with an 11.8 average (9 for 106). . . . Peterson leads Evco punters with a 37.4 average (58 long) . . . Freshman kicker Jeff Gulliford has booted a WWU record six straight field goals. He has eight three-pointers (12 attempts) this fall and needs only two more to break the Vikings' season standard (9 by Jon Christie in 1978) . . . Freshman tailback Steve Curry, converted outside linebacker, rushed for 120 yards in Western's 24-12 win over Eastern Oregon State College (EOSC) two weeks ago. It was the first 100-yard game by a Viking ball carrier in 22 outings (since John Locker ran for 109 yards in a 28-27 win over Willamette University on Oct. 2, 1982) . . . The victory over EOSC was Western's first on the road in 23 tries. Its last triumph away from home was 17-7 over Pacific University (OR) on Oct. 6, 1979 . . . Chris Ladines, an outside linebacker up until last week and an all-star defensive end as a junior, played fullback against Simon Fraser. He was a starter there is a sophomore, rushing for a team-leading 594 yards.
