THIS IS THE UNIVERSITY OF PUGET SOUND

The University of Puget Sound is about to celebrate its anniversary. Founded in 1888, the University will soon commemorate its 100-year commitment to liberal teaching and academic excellence.

Its faculty is first and foremost a teaching faculty, selected not only for excellence in various subject areas but also for the desire and ability to translate that knowledge in a meaningful way. With such liberal teaching, the University's 2,700 undergraduates learn to think analytically and write proficiently, skills that will last a lifetime.

Students select courses of study in 32 different arts and science disciplines and in five professional schools. Graduate programs are offered in the fields of occupational therapy, education and law.

The University of Puget Sound is a diverse and vibrant community where each student is driven to excellence. Where scholarship comes first and learning lasts a lifetime.

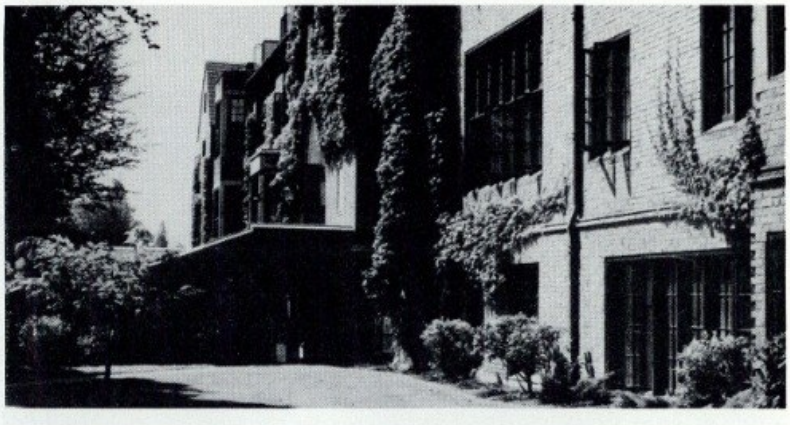

The student-athlete at Puget Sound becomes an all-around winner as the outstanding academic opportunities are coupled with opportunities for athletic excellence. A total of 21 intercollegiate sports are offered for the student-athlete. The success of Puget Sound athletes on and off the field was very evident during the 1985-86 seasons. Among the almost 400 participants in Logger athletics, 29 were chosen All-America, 4 were selected Academic All-America, over 30 were picked for All-League or All-District recognition, 16 earned Scholar-Athlete designation and 5 were selected as members of the first class of Phi Beta Kappa at the University of Puget Sound.

This commitment to scholarship is the foundation on which the Logger Football Program is built. Coach Ross Hjelseth and his staff are dedicated to the idea of building quality young men who will find success in all facets of life through football. The emphasis in the term student-athlete is properly placed first on the word student in the UPS Football program. For example, the 1985 Logger team boasted Academic All-American David Hombach. This 6'3" senior offensive lineman was a Logger team captain, a Columbia Football All-League pick and most importantly a 3.82 student in economics and finance. "This honor is probably more impressive than any other All-American team because this means David Hombach is an All-American in the classroom. Young people being successful in all aspects of their lives is the ultimate of what college athletics is all about," noted Coach Hjelseth.

The University of Puget Sound approach has been successful in guiding the lives of many student-athletes. Brian Threlkeld was among the graduates of Puget Sound in 1983 and a four-year offensive tackle and center on the football team. He was an Academic-All American, a U.S.F.L. draft selection in 1983, an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship award winner, and a U.P.S. Laura H. Cunningham Fellow. Presently he is a graduate student in the Department of History at the University of Chicago. These are his reflections on Logger Football:

"At Puget Sound, commitment to excellence on the football field did not preclude commitment to excellence in the classroom; indeed, the pursuit of excellence in one endeavor complemented the pursuit of excellence in the other. The coaching staff recognized that academics came first, and gladly accomodated me when conflicts arose. Logger Football gave me memories and friends that I treasure, and enhanced an education of which I am proud."

President Phibbs

President Philip M. Phibbs

Philip Phibbs has served as President of the University of Puget Sound since 1973. President Phibbs received his undergraduate degree from Washington State University and his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago. An active member of numerous national and regional organizations, President Phibbs currently serves on the Board of Directors for the National Association of Schools and Colleges of the United Methodist Church and the Tacoma-Pierce County Chamber of Commerce.

President Phibbs oversees a very successful athletic program that offers Puget Sound students 21 intercollegiate sports. The University of Puget Sound holds dual affiliations in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) and the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).

In 1985, the nation's premier academic honor society, Phi Beta Kappa, granted a charter to the University of Puget Sound. Among the first class of Phi Beta Kappa were five student-athletes. In addition, six student athletes earned Academic All-American recognition and 16 were selected as Scholar-athletes during 1985-86.

Dr. Richard Ulrich

Director of Physical Education, Athletics and Recreation

Dr. Richard Ulrich is beginning his third year as the Director of Physical Education, Athletics and Recreation at the University of Puget Sound. His spirit and enthusiasm has been a major factor in the resurgence of pride in Logger athletics.

Dr. Ulrich joined the university in 1984 after a successful stint at Adams State College, Alamosa Colorado. In addition to his duties of Physical Education and Athletic Director at Adams State, Ulrich was the head wrestling coach for 10 years and served as defensive coordinator in football. As the Adams State Wrestling mentor he coached three National Championship teams, three runnerup teams, and 20 individual champions. In 1980 he was named NAIA National Wrestling Coach of the Year. Dr. Ulrich received his master's degree from the University of Arizona and his Ph.D from the University of Utah.

UPS FOOTBALL COACHING STAFF

Coach Hjelseth

Ross Hjelseth - Head Coach

The 1986 season will be the second for Coach Ross Hjelseth. After the success of Coach Hjelseth's rookie season, Logger fans have reason to look forward to the upcoming year. The Loggers finished 7-2 in their first season under Coach Hjelseth and placed second in the Northern Division of the Columbia Football League. In addition, the Logger football program finished ranked 15th in the NAIA National Poll. Coach Hjelseth has worked hard towards the ideal of "Commitment to Excellence with Class," within the football program and is ardent in his beliefs about the value of education.

Hjelseth, 35, came to UPS from North Dakota State University where he was an assistant football coach for eight years. During the time Hjelseth was at NDSU, the Bison went 45-7 and captured the NCAA Division II National Championship in 1983. Hjelseth was an effective recruiter for NDSU and coached the Bison offensive backs and receivers. The NDSU offense was ranked No. 1 nationally in the NCAA Division II during the 1984 season. Hjelseth graduated from Mayville State (N.D.) in 1973 with degrees in Business Education and Physical Education. Ross and wife, Ronni, have one son, Brandon, 1 year old.

SCOUTING REPORT

Puget Sound vs. Western Washington

The 1986 football season is quickly coming to an end for the Puget Sound Loggers. Today's battle with Western Washington University is the last home game for Coach Ross Hjelseth's squad. The Loggers hold an 4-3 overall record after an exciting 20-17 victory over Central Washington last week. The Vikings of Western Washington bring a 2-5 mark into today's game and are coming off a disappointing 41-12 loss to Simon Fraser.

The Loggers do not have fond memories of last year's battle with the Vikings. The UPS squad hopes to erase a 36-22 defeat in Bellingham that squashed the Loggers' hopes for an NAIA playoff spot. On the year Western has averaged 101.6 yards per game rushing and 198.6 yards passing. Opponents have been allowed 258.9 yards passing and 127 yards on the ground. Tailback John Dickinson (5-8, 175, SO) is the Viking's leading rusher with 328 yards and 6 touchdowns, but has also seen time as a receiver hauling down 32 passes for 270 yards and 2 touchdowns. On defense, the Viking's top player is linebacker Wayne Lewis, an Honorable Mention All-American a year ago, who has 96 tackles during the 1986 campaign.

Mike Oliphant leads the Logger rushing attack with 694 yards on 80 carries for a 8.7 yards per carry average. In addition, Oliphant is the Loggers' top scorer with 8 touchdowns and a 2-point conversion. Rick Sassara is the Loggers' leading tackler with 52 solo and 36 assist tackles.

The final contest for the Loggers this season will be a battle with Whitworth College, Saturday, November 15th in Spokane.

BASKETBALL — HOOP IT UP!

The 1986-87 men's and women's basketball seasons are just around the corner. The men are looking to get back on top of the Great Northwest Conference, and you can expect to see a number of new faces on the squad as the Loggers have added six new players. Coach Zech's Loggers are looking forward to an exciting and challenging schedule in '86.

Coach Sally Leyse has the UPS women geared up to bid for a NAIA District Title. All-state guards, Wendi Tibbs and Christine Hannon are back to run the fast paced Logger offense.
