ABOUT WESTERN WASHINGTON

Western Washington University was founded in 1893 and has grown from a small teacher's college into a multipurpose institution of 9,000 students, offering a wide range of educational opportunities, from studies in the liberal arts and sciences to pre-professional and professional training.

Western offers degree programs through five colleges and two schools. The College of Arts and Sciences, the largest division of the University, offers over 60 major programs in 22 departments. Programs in accounting, business administration, economics, business education and office administration are available through the College of Business and Economics. The School of Education trains teachers at all levels, from preschool through college. The talents and facilities of the department of art, music and theatre/dance are offered through the College of Fine and Performing Arts. Huxley College of Environmental Studies addresses the biological, social and cultural dimensions of environmental problems on a scale ranging from local to global. Students who wish to take maximum responsibility for the direction and content of their degree programs, share in curriculum planning and engage in a variety of independent studies may be interested in Fairhaven College. Fairhaven students may select a major from another division of Western or design their own Fairhaven concentration. Western's Graduate School offers the Master of Arts, Master of BusinessAdministration, Master of Education, Master of Music and Master of Science degrees in nearly 30 different areas of concentration.

Western is located in Bellingham, a city of 46,360 in the northwest corner of the state near the Canadian border. The 224-acre campus, on the west slope of Sehome Hill, overlooks the downtown area, Bellingham Bay, and the beautiful San Juan Islands. Less than an hour's drive away are the ski slopes of 10,778-foot Mount Baker, numerous lakes, two major rivers, and the alpine country of the North Cascades. Seattle is 90 miles to the south, and Vancouver, British Columbia, is 55 miles to the north.

WWU ATHLETICS

Along with its reputation for excellence in education, Western also holds distinction in the realm of athletics.

Continually striving for success, Western provides student-athletes with top coaching, fine facilities and competitive opportunities. Success is realized not only in the form of team championships and individual honors, but also in the development of each athlete's potential to the fullest.

Annually nearly 400 students compete in intercollegiate athletics, while participation in intramurals has reached 3,000 with many individuals active in more than one intramural sport. Physical Education class enrollment generally averages 2,500 per year, again with considerable overlap. In addition, ten club sport teams compete at Western.

Today, the Western intercollegiate sports realm includes 15 varsity activities with excellence represented in accomplishments on the league, district and national levels of competition. They are basketball, crew, cross-country, soccer, tennis and track & field for men and women, football and golf for men, and volleyball for women.

FACILITIES

Athletic facilities on Western's campus include Sam Carver Gymnasium, Viking Field, a six-lane, all-weather rubberized track; five practice fields and eight tennis courts.

Carver Gym, completed in 1962, contains five basketball courts, a gymnastics room, a swimming pool, four handball courts, weight room and convertible facilities for volleyball. The gym seats 3,000 spectators. Another weight room is located adjacent to the track.

Bellingham's Civic Stadium is the site of all home contests in football and some track meets. The stadium, built in 1961, with an addition in 1971, has covered seating for 5,000 spectators and lights for night use. The track is a 400-meter, eight-lane oval. A pressbox is located at the top of the south grandstand and an electric scoreboard on the west side.

All crew events are held on Lake Samish, the boathouse being located at Lutherwood Bible Camp. Cross-country competition is conducted at beautiful Lake Padden Park, and golf matches take place at the Sudden Valley Golf & Country Club.

NAIA

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) is a completely autonomous association, currently administering programs of intercollegiate athletics to nearly 500 fully accredited colleges and universities of moderate enrollment. The fundamental tenet of the NAIA is that intercollegiate athletics is an integral part of the total educational program of the institution. This belief is strongly reflected in the governing documents, activities, and organizational structure of the association.

The NAIA is governed by two bodies. The Council of Presidents, composed of one president from each district, is responsible for fiscal matters, academic standards and supervision of the national staff. The 10-person National Executive Committee, elected by membership, is responsible for organizing championship events and overseeing the committees and associations. The executive director conducts the day-to-day operation of the National Office, headquartered in Kansas City, Missouri. A full time staff of 22 serves the membership at the national level.

The district is the basic unit of the NAIA. The association is organized into 32 geographical districts spread throughout the 50 states and a part of Canada. Each district is governed by a district executive committee, headed by the district chair. The district executive committee administers district playoff events, the champions of which qualify to compete in NAIA area and national championship competition.

Eligibility rules within the NAIA govern all play in all sports recognized by the association.

COLUMBIA FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

The Columbia Football Association begins its fourth season in 1988, sporting a new name and having all its members in the same division of the NAIA.

Called the Columbia Football League since its formation in 1985, the loop changed that title last summer to the CFA. The Northern and Southern Divisions of the old CFL are now known as the Mount Rainier and Mount Hood Leagues, respectively.

And, all 14 members of the CFA are in Division II of the NAIA after having eight schools in Division I and six schools in Division II over the past several seasons.

The main reason for all schools going into the same classification was that under NAIA guidelines established in 1987, the loop will have the same number of national playoff berths available as when it had schools in both divisions. And, it will be a much more competitive situation for those schools reaching the playoffs.

Both league champions will receive an automatic berth into the national playoffs. Other league schools can make the playoffs if they are ranked high enough in the final regular-season national poll.

Two years ago, the NAIA expanded its football playoff format to 16 teams in both divisions. Automatic berths are awarded to the champions of NAIA football conferences and the field is filled by the next highest-ranked teams in the final regular-season polls.

The members of the Mount Rainier League are Pacific Lutheran, Central Washington, Whitworth, Puget Sound, Simon Fraser, Western Washington, and Lewis & Clark. Members of the Mount Hood League are Western Oregon, Linfield, Willamette, Southern Oregon, Oregon Tech, Pacific, and Eastern Oregon.

1987 REVIEW

It had been a long wait for Western football fans: 10 years, to be exact. But when the Vikings concluded their 1987 campaign with a 13-13 tie against eventual NAIA Division II national champion Pacific Lutheran, even Head Coach Paul Hansen allowed himself a broad smile.

After all, Western had just wrapped up its first winning campaign since 1977.

"4-3-2, and next year, No. 1," said Hansen. "That's our countdown. That's the way the returning players are thinking."

Led by a tenacious and opportunistic defense, the Vikings had an eye-opening takeaway-giveaway ratio of plus 24, best in the Columbia Football League, while finishing the campaign unbeaten in their last five games -- a trick not turned at WWU since 1952-53, or in a single season since 1938. And they accomplished the feat despite losing eight starters to injury during the year.

Western placed fifth in the seven-team CFL northern division with a 2-3-1 record.

"I have a feeling we've finally convinced some people we're for real," said Hansen, who suffered with his gridders through four straight losing seasons before turning it around this year.

Linebacker Wayne Lewis, who set a school record for most tackles in a career (431), led Viking defenders for the fourth straight season with a personal best 155 stops and a CFL-leading 11 takeaways (school record-tying 6 fumble recoveries & 5 pass interceptions). He was named honorable mention Associated Press Little All-America and first team all-CFL along with safety Kelly Susee, who had five pass interceptions and 68 tackles, and punter Peter LaBarge. Lewis also was awarded NAIA National Division I defensive Player of the Week honors for his role in the season-ending tie with PLU.

Cornerback Jeff Gulliford, who had three pass interceptions and four blocked kicks, was chosen to the all-CFL second team, along with LaBarge as a placekicker, while four players -- fullback Mike Nelson, wide receiver John Dickinson, offensive guard Darren Smith and linebacker Nick Ericksen -- were given honorable mention.

If there ever was a season when a single play could be pinpointed as a turning point, this was it. It occurred at Bellingham's Civic Stadium on Oct. 17 when the Vikings, then 1-3, trailed Western Oregon (ranked 14th nationally in Division I) 14-13. The situation looked bleak: WWU had the ball on its own 17-yard line with 25 seconds to go. But quarterback John Barger dropped back and uncorked a 64-yard pass to wide receiver Scott River, who hauled in the ball and was tackled on the Wolves' 19. LaBarge followed with a 36-yard field goal with four seconds showing on the clock, giving the Vikings a 16-14 upset victory.

Before the Western Oregon decision, WWU had dropped three straight games -- 27-17 to Puget Sound, 34-14 to Central Washington and 19-14 to Simon Fraser -- after a season-opening 28-13 win over Willamette. After the WOSC victory, however, the Vikings didn't lose.

In fact, had one game been one second longer and another three seconds shorter, Western could have been 6-3. LaBarge's apparent game-winning field goal was ruled to have come after time expired in a 13-13 tie with Pacific. And PLU only escaped with its tie on a 40-yard field goal with three seconds remaining.

"Our offense wasn't as productive as we had hoped until late in the season," Hansen admitted. "Our offensive line didn't come along as quickly as we had expected. But we have a good nucleus, and with experience they'll get better."

The main cog in the Western offense was tailback Scott Lohr, who rushed for 783 yards (4.5 avg.) and caught 23 passes for 165 more. Nelson gained 370 yards (4.3 avg.) as the second-leading rusher.

Nelson's second-team CFL honor came as much for his blocking ability as for his ball carrying. "Mike was extremely inspirational at practices as well as games," Hansen said. "He really added enthusiasm just with his presence."

Barger, who started every game at quarterback, completed 106 of 217 passes for 1,203 yards and four touchdowns.

Dickinson, an NAIA National Scholar-Athlete, was the squad's leading receiver with 26 catches for 377 yards and two TDs. Wide receiver Mike Carrington had 18 receptions for 218 yards and tight end Rob James 17 grabs for 168 yards.

LaBarge led Western in scoring with 49 points on a perfect 22 of 22 PATs (25 straight over two seasons) and 9 of 16 field goal attempts (set WWU career record for field goals made with a current total of 27). Lohr scored 48 points on eight touchdown runs.

The Vikings outscored their opposition 191 to 158 over the nine-game season, tying Central Washington for the CFL lead in scoring defense by permitting only 17.6 points per game. Western recovered a school-record equalling 25 fumbles and intercepted 20 passes.

Hansen pointed to three main reasons for WWU's overall improvement.

"Number one, we had more talent this year," he said. "We had bigger and better players than we ever had before. But that alone doesn't win games.

"We also had our oldest and most experienced coaching staff since I've been here. And we had outstanding leadership, especially from our seniors. Lewis, Nelson, even the guys who didn't play too much, were just great."

1988 PREVIEW

Fifty years have passed since Western could boast an undefeated, untied football team. That's half a century. Yet it's no coincidence that, on the anniversary of this feat, the 1988 Viking gridders feel they are strong enough to vie for the Columbia Football Association - Mount Rainier League championship.

After all, this squad is essentially the same one that went undefeated in the final five games of last season -- the longest unbeaten string in the same year since 1938 -- en route to its first winning record (4-3-2) in 10 years. That included a 13-13 tie with eventual NAIA Division II National champion Pacific Lutheran. With 16 returning starters, head Coach Paul Hansen (6th year) has reason for optimism.

"We feel we have a good nucleus," said Hansen. "If everybody comes, as we expect, we'll present a strong challenge."

Heading the list of returnees are a pair of first-team all-CFL selections, safety Kelly Susee and punter-placekicker Peter LaBarge. The speedy Susee, who had five pass interceptions and 68 tackles last fall, anchors a defense that remains the team's greatest strength -- despite the loss to graduation of honorable mention Associated Press Little All-America linebacker Wayne Lewis.

LaBarge has been among the national leaders in punting and placekicking during his career (ranked 6th in kick scoring in 1985 with a 6.1 avg. and 7th in punting in 1987 with a 39.4 avg.). He holds seven WWU records and is on the verge of breaking several others.

Here's how Western stacks up, position by position:

OFFENSE

QUARTERBACK: This is among the few shaky spots on the squad. The 1987 signal-caller, John Barger, suffered a knee injury in the final game and it didn't respond to off-season therapy. He underwent arthroscopic surgery in mid-June and hopes to be ready to play. If Barger isn't able to play, the job could go to Susee, who played quarterback in high school, or to one of three freshmen - Tom Lane, Matt Mikesell or Scott Schauer.

RUNNING BACKS: The tailback slot belongs to Scott Lohr, the team's leading rusher the past two seasons. In 1987, Lohr ran for 783 yards and eight TDs, and caught 23 passes for another 165 yards. Pressing him is Walter Bailey, who may be the most talented freshman ever to attend WWU. Honorable mention all-CFL fullback Mike Nelson, an outstanding blocker, has graduated, and '87 backup Rob James has a chronic knee problem. The likely starter is converted wide receiver Kevin Kienast.

RECEIVERS: Diminutive but speedy John Dickinson will be at split end. A two-time honorable mention all-CFL selection and a 1987 NAIA Scholar-Athlete, he led the team last year with 26 catches for 377 yards. Dickinson, who was a running back his first season in a Western uniform, has three-year career totals of 1,179 yards rushing, 88 pass receptions for 844 yards, and 15 touchdowns. Mike Carrington returns to start at flankerback; he made 18 catches for 218 yards in 1987. Tight end is less certain, but Hansen has high hopes for transfer Kirk Schneider from North Seattle CC: "He's a great player, perhaps the best we've ever had. He runs and catches better than (Ken) Sager (WWU's record-holder for single-season receptions). The only question is whether he can block." Other top candidates are freshmen Jake Bell, Sean Hamlin and Mike Harter.

1988 PREVIEW

INTERIOR LINE: "If everybody shows," said Hansen, "we're going to be two-deep." If they don't, the Vikings may suffer from limited depth if the injury bug strikes. Solid at center is Kevin Beason, who started all nine games in 1987 after transferring from Washington State. Probable starters at guards are Keith Kingma, who "looked good last year but had an Achilles tendon problem," and Dennis James, moving from strong tackle. "I think we've now got him in the best position for his skills," said Hansen. The tackles look to be Jeff Bakkom and Jack Coble or Steele Sykes. Two transfers expected to strengthen the WWU line are Salvador Martin, a center from West Los Angeles CC; and Pat McClintock, a guard from Yakima Valley CC.

DEFENSE

LINEMEN: Joe Buslach and Bruce Smith have the inside track on starting at the tackles. They'll be pushed by returning letterman Bryan Butler, a part-time starter at the end of last year. The ends could be a pair of talented transfers, Bryan Alar from Wenatchee Valley CC and Todd Williams from Walla Walla CC. A fine freshman prospect is Jon Pasckvale, an all-league pick and runner-up at 190 pounds at the state AA wrestling tournament.

LINEBACKERS: Nick Ericksen slides over from weak inside linebacker to fill Lewis' spot on the strong side. An honorable mention all-CFL pick last year when he made 109 tackles, Ericksen looked better than ever in spring drills. Marty Starkovich will inherit the weakside linebacker job unless displaced by transfer Rudy Grandbois from Yakima Valley CC. Outside linebacker Cory Heins is an outstanding athlete who as a freshman led the team in quarterback sacks with eight. Backing him up is Jim Sypher. Two fine freshman linebacker candidates are Greg Enell and Robb Myhre.

BACKS: Susee is a lock at strong safety. Tom Bainter will back him up. At weak safety is returning starter Bill Landry. The cornerbacks look to be returnees Rick Rudd and Jeff Gardner on the strong side; Dan Lawson and Sean Jenkins on the weak side. A top transfer is Tom Townsend from Spokane Falls CC.

SPECIAL TEAMS

With LaBarge doing the kicking, this is already a solid part of Western's game. Susee, Dickinson, Lawson, Rob James and Bainter all have experience at returning kicks. James was the team's number one kickoff return man a year ago when he ran back 13 for a 19.2 average, including a long of 49 yards.

1987 GAME SUMMARIES

WESTERN 28, WILLAMETTE 13

Winning its first season-opener on the road since 1970, Western came from behind to defeat Willamette University 28-13 at Salem, Ore. Reserve fullback Rob James carried the ball three times and scored on each attempt (1, 5, and 1 yards). With the Vikings' trailing 10-0 midway through the second quarter, defensive lineman Bryan Butler forced a fumble and recovered it on the Willamette 1-yard line to set up James' first TD. Western took a 14-10 lead on its next possession, the big play being a 22-yard run by fullback Mike Nelson. The Bearcats cut the deficit to one point, 14-13, on a field goal early in the fourth period. But James returned the ensuing kickoff 49 yards and five plays later tailback Scott Lohr, who carried 22 times for 101 yards, scored on a 13-yard scamper. Linebacker Wayne Lewis and safety Kelly Susee thwarted Willamette threats with interceptions, while cornerback Jeff Gulliford blocked a field goal attempt and recovered a fumble. In all, Western forced six turnovers. Peter LaBarge averaged 44.1 yards on eight punts and booted four extra points. Willamette held big edges in a number of statistics, including total yards (391 to 232), total plays (79 to 58) and first downs (20 to 9).

PUGET SOUND 27, WESTERN 17

Despite a gallant comeback effort, Western fell 27-17 to nationally ranked (25th - NAIA Division I) University of Puget Sound at Tacoma. Logger tailback Mike Oliphant scored four touchdowns on runs of 17, 32, 10 and 85 yards. He finished with 199 yards rushing (11.7 apc) and 339 yards in all-purpose running (includes yards rushing, pass-receiving and kick returns). Down 20-7 late in the third quarter, Western rallied to score ten unanswered points and cut the deficit to 20-17 at 7:03 of the final period. With two minutes remaining, linebacker Wayne Lewis made his third fumble recovery of the afternoon to tie school and league records, and the Vikings drove to the UPS 15-yard line before a pass interception ended the threat. Western held statistical edges in total yards (421 to 356), total plays (83 to 61) and first downs (26 to 16). Tailback Scott Lohr ran for a career-high 154 yards (5.5 apc), scoring on a 4-yard plunge in the third quarter, and caught 7 passes for 71 yards. Wide receiver John Dickinson made 8 receptions for 96 yards as quarterback John Barger completed 23 of 36 passes for 242 yards. One of those tosses was an 11-yard scoring strike to tight end Rob James midway through the fourth quarter. Lewis took part in 16 tackles and defensive tackle Joe Cleary had 11 stops.

CENTRAL 34, WESTERN 14

Western fell 34-14 to Central Washington University in its home opener before an estimated 4,200 fans (largest crowd since 4,500 viewed the WWU-CWU game in 1972) at Bellingham's Civic Stadium. The Vikings led 14-7 midway through the second quarter and 14-13 at halftime as tailback Scott Lohr scored on a three-yard run and quarterback John Barger reached the end zone on a one-yard plunge. Lohr's TD followed an interception by cornerback Jeff Gulliford. Two WWU defensive linemen, tackle Joe Cleary and end Bryan Butler, were injured in the second quarter and did not return to the game. That allowed Central, which was held to 58 yards rushing in the first half, to net 191 yards on the ground in the final 30 minutes. Wildcat tailback Jimmie Dillingham ran for 163 yards and two TDs and fullback Kevin Rodgers had 91 yards and three TDs. In all, Central had 414 yards in total offense, 249 rushing. Western finished with 201 total yards, netting only 45 in the second half. Linebacker Wayne Lewis had 25 tackles to lead the Vikings.

1987 GAME SUMMARIES

SIMON FRASER 19, WESTERN 14

In a contest that had ten turnovers, six quarterback sacks and one blocked punt, Western lost 19-14 to Simon Fraser University at Burnaby, B.C. Tailback Scott Lohr gave the Vikings an early lead as he scored on a 3-yard run, following a 67-yard scamper to the SFU 28-yard line. Lohr finished with 122 yards rushing on 20 carries. The Clansmen came back with 19 unanswered points, including two long TD passes by quarterback Giulio Caravatta (258 yards passing, 16 of 31) of 52 yards to flankerback Doug Correa (6 catches for 125 yards) and 47 yards to tight end John Zajdel. Dean Kruger kicked field goals of 31 and 20 yards for SFU, while tailback Orville Lee ran 30 times for 142 yards. WWU, which had six turnovers (3 interceptions & 3 fumbles) and allowed four quarterback sacks, drove for a touchdown in the final minute. Quarterback John Barger plunged over from the 1-yard line after throwing a 33-yard pass to flankerback Scott River. Linebacker Wayne Lewis was in on 24 tackles for the Vikings as well as recovering a fumble. Safety Kelly Susee had 14 stops and intercepted a pass.

WESTERN 16, WESTERN OREGON 14

Peter LaBarge kicked a 36-yard field goal with four seconds remaining to give Western a 16-14 victory over NAIA Division I nationally 14th ranked Western Oregon State College at Bellingham. With 25 seconds to go, WWU had the ball on its own 17-yard line. But Quarterback John Barger uncorked a 64-yard pass to wide receiver Scott River, who was tackled on the Wolves' 19. The win snapped a three-game losing streak for Western and began a five-game unbeaten string. The Viking defense forced seven turnovers, recovering five fumbles and intercepting two passes. In all, LaBarge booted three field goals in the contest and safety Kelly Susee returned an interception 77 yards for a touchdown. Setting up the two other field goals were a pass interception by cornerback Mike Minnehan and a recovery of a fumbled punt by Troy Hodge. Western, which trailed 14-10 at halftime, held the Wolves to 84 total yards in the second half.

WESTERN 13, PACIFIC 13

The Vikings snapped a four-game Pacific University winning streak as they tied 13-13 with the Boxers at Forest Grove, Ore. Cornerback Jeff Gardner preserved the deadlock by blocking an extra point kick after Pacific went 80 yards to score a touchdown with 2:15 remaining in the game. Western drove to the Boxers' 15-yard line in the closing seconds on a spectacular 32-yard reception by tight end Rob James and Peter LaBarge booted a 31-yard field goal, but it was not allowed as the officials ruled that time had expired. The Vikings led 10-0 at halftime as they held the nationally-ranked Pacific attack to 140 total yards in the first two quarters, forcing four turnovers and sacking the quarterback three times. A fumble recovery by defensive tackle Bruce Smith that was forced by linebacker Nick Ericksen led to a 47-yard field goal by LaBarge early in the first quarter. Tailback Scott Lohr scored on a 1-yard run in the second period following a pass interception by cornerback Mike Minnehan. Pacific cut the deficit to 10-7 midway through the third quarter, but Western came back with a 36-yard field goal by LaBarge to take a 13-7 lead. Linebacker Cory Heins had four quarterback sacks for 47 yards in losses and caused two fumbles, while inside linebackers Wayne Lewis and Ericksen had 21 and 15 tackles, respectively. A total of 230 yards were marked off in penalties (Western 16 for 136 & Pacific 11 for 94). LaBarge averaged 44.7 yards on six punts.

1987 GAME SUMMARIES

WESTERN 35, LEWIS & CLARK 18

The Vikings defeated Lewis & Clark College 35-18 at Portland, Ore. Quarterback John Barger scored two touchdowns, both on 1-yard plunges, and threw a 22-yard TD pass to wide receiver Scott River. Fullback Mike Nelson ran for 104 yards, reaching the end zone twice on runs of 20 and 1 yards, while tailback Scott Lohr had 116 yards on the ground. Western forced five Pioneer turnovers (3 fumble recoveries & 2 pass interceptions), three of which resulted in touchdowns. Linebacker Nick Ericksen had eight tackles and two fumble recoveries. Linebacker Wayne Lewis had 15 stops, broke up two passes and forced a fumble.

WESTERN 41, WHITWORTH 7

The Vikings walloped Whitworth College 41-7 at Bellingham. Tailback Scott Lohr had 146 yards rushing on 21 carries and scored three touchdowns on runs of 5, 3, and 35 yards as Western netted over 300 ground yards (306 total) for the first time since 1972 (313 versus Central Washington in 28-14 loss). Quarterback John Barger threw touchdown passes of 45 and 27 yards to wide receiver John Dickinson. Peter LaBarge kicked field goals of 30 and 34 yards, bringing his career total of successful three-point boots to a school record 25 (old mark 24, Jon Christie, 1977-80). The Vikings had six takeaways, three of which resulted in touchdowns and one in a field goal. Another field goal followed a blocked punt by cornerback Jeff Gulliford. Linebacker Wayne Lewis had two pass interceptions and 12 tackles, bringing his career stop total to a new WWU standard of 418 (old mark 415, Bob Taylor, 1976-79).

WESTERN 13, PACIFIC LUTHERAN 13

Western tied NAIA Division II nationally third ranked and eventual national champion Pacific Lutheran University 13-13 at Bellingham. PLU, which had a seven-game winning streak snapped, narrowly avoided defeat as Eric Cultum kicked a 40-yard field goal with three seconds left in the game. Western stretched its unbeaten streak to five games (three wins & two ties), its longest such string since 1953. The Vikings led 10-0 three minutes into the contest as cornerback Mike Minnehan intercepted a pass and returned it 12 yards for a touchdown and Peter LaBarge kicked a 47-yard field goal after a pass theft by linebacker Wayne Lewis. The Lutes came back to tie the score before a 34-yard field goal by LaBarge gave WWU a 13-10 halftime lead. Western backup quarterback Jeff Mills, replacing John Barger who was injured early in the first quarter, passed for 155 yards. Wide receiver Mike Carrington caught six passes for 106 yards. PLU had 304 yards in total offense, while holding Western to 204 yards and only 16 yards rushing.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The media guide is an informational book prepared especially for the media covering Western football during the 1988 season. It contains facts, statistics and records of the Viking teams, both past and present.

PRESS BOX: The pressbox contains space for radio stations, scoreboard operator, public address announcer and spotter, WWU and opponent coaches, statisticians and print media representatives. Since the press box is a working area, please refrain from cheering.

PRESS PASSES: Press credentials are issued only to working members of the news media. Please do not request space for spouses, family members or friends. Sideline passes will be issued only to photographers.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Photographers who work the sidelines must have a sideline pass in addition to a press pass. Photographers must operate three-feet behind the sideline so as not to obstruct the chain gang or game officials. NCAA and NAIA regulations limit shooting to outside the team areas (between the 25-yard lines). Photographers may also work beyond the end line but not in the end zone. Any photographer who interferes with game personnel will be ejected from the field.

SCOUTS: Scouting space is provided in the top row of the south bleachers, just in front of the press box. Scouts will be provided with game programs and final statistics.

STATISTICS: Statistics will be xeroxed and be available seven minutes into the halftime and 15 minutes after the game in the press box. Statistics will include team and individual totals, plus tackles and a play by play. An abbreviated form is used at halftime.

DRESSING ROOMS: Western dresses at Sam Carver Gymnasium on the WWU campus, and the opponent suits up at Bellingham's Civic Stadium. The Vikings are bused back to Carver Gym immediately after the game for showers.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS: Media who wish to interview Western coaches and players after the game should do so before they depart for showers on campus.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: Interviews can be set up by contacting the sports information office.

COACH INTERVIEWS: Head Coach Paul Hansen is available in his office on weekday mornings for interviews. Appointments can be made by calling Hansen or the sports information office.

VIKING SPORTS HOTLINE: The Viking Sports Hotline is a 24-hour telephone answering service that provides the latest in WWU men's and women's athletic results and information. From mid-September thru May, it is updated as often as necessary. The number is 206-676-3688.
